Greek Junta Frees 2,600 From Prison

Opponents Granted Amnesties; Constitutional Referendum Set

ATHENS (AP) — Moving to silence its critics, the Greek military dictatorship granted amnesty today to 2,600 political opponents it jailed since seizing power in a coup last April 21 and announced a referendum next April 21 on a proposed new constitution.

There was no indication, however, when the regime would authorize elections, a possible sticking point in its negotiations to bring exiled King Constantine back to his throne after his attempted counter-coup Dec. 13 ended in fiasco. In granting the amnesty, the regime went beyond other conditions set by the king.

Premier George Papadopoulos, who made the announcements, said "elections will take place at a point when the aims of the revolution and the risks of Communism have been excluded."

Strong Executive

The draft constitution, which reportedly provides for a strong executive branch and limitations on the powers of the monarchy, would go before the nation's voters no later than Sept. 15, Papadopoulos said, if "technical reasons" rule out the April 21 date.

The amnesty order applies to 6,000 political personalities arrested in the colonels' coup, including Andreas Papandreou, a former American citizen and son of ex-Premier George Papandreou, and composer Mikis Theodorakis, who wrote the music for "Zorba the Greek." Many of the released earlier on signing pledges to avoid political activity.

Accused of Plot

Papandreou had been awaiting trial on charges of treason. He allegedly belonged to Aspida (shield), a leftist military organization accused of plotting the overthrow of the monarchy and Greece's transformation into a socialist state outside the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

Papandreou's American background—he taught economics at the University of California—led to wide protests from the American academic community over his imprisonment.

"The government in its efforts to secure the best possible conditions toward restoring unity of the Greek people has decided to forget the past and grant amnesty to all. All those involved in the Aspida case will be amnestied," Papadopoulos said.

He did not specify when they would be released, but it was assumed that attempts would be made to get them home for Christmas.

The regime's move came as pressure from abroad increased for it to take a more democratic stance. The United States, normally a firm ally, has been cool in its dealings with Greece since Constantine fled. Britain said it considered its relations suspended.

Both Parents Surprised at Child No. 11

BRIGG, England (AP) — Gordon Dunderdale had 10 children when he fell asleep in front of the television.

When he woke up he had 11— and he didn't know his wife was pregnant.

Neither, she said, did Mrs. Dunderdale.

The eventful night in the life of the Dunderdales started when Gordon, 38, settled down in his favorite chair to watch television. Brenda, 34, went to the kitchen to make coffee.

Gordon fell asleep. Brenda felt unwell and wondered why. She decided to slip out of the house and call at the local hospital.

She didn't wake Gordon "because I didn't want to worry him."

Gordon, meanwhile, woke up wondering where his coffee was. It wasn't in the kitchen—neither was his wife. He called police, who traced Brenda to Glenford Hospital half a mile away, where nurses were delivering a 6-pound baby boy.

Death Toll Climbs On Jammed Roads

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Holiday travelers were on the move again today, crowding the nation's highways and jamming into bus, train and airline terminals to get transportation home for Christmas.

While cold, clear weather covered most of the country today providing dry roads for motorists, the National Safety Council estimated 625 to 725 persons would die in traffic accidents before midnight Monday.

The toll since the count began at 6 p.m. local time Friday stood at nearly 200 by noon today.

Safety council statisticians estimated motorists will drive a total of 7.9 billion miles during the three-day weekend—300 million more than during a nonholiday period of equal length.

As a basis for comparison The Associated Press made a survey of motor vehicle fatalities during the three-day nonholiday weekend from 6 p.m. Friday, Dec. 15, to midnight Monday, Dec. 18. The total was 484.

Traffic Jams

The crush of cars starting out Friday created many a late afternoon traffic jam. Philadelphia police reported the midtown traffic was the worst in five years and expected a bigger jam today.

At the height of the crush two young girls and a man in a white sports car drove up Broad Street, a main artery, stopping to give every traffic patrolman a cup of coffee and a doughnut.

At Philadelphia's international airport, as elsewhere, extra planes were put on to handle the holiday push. One official said the biggest flow was to the south—Miami and San Juan, P.R.

In Miami, where the forecast for Christmas Eve calls for temperatures in the upper 70s, holiday tourists were packing in. Southbound traffic on the Sunshine State Parkway Friday was up 16 per cent over the same day last year.

Eastern Airlines reported a record 8,211 inbound passengers to Miami Thursday and about the same number Friday. "It's the heaviest traffic the airlines have ever had into Miami," said a spokesman.

And the Seaboard Coast Line Railroad brought in 2,100 visitors to Miami on four trains from New York and one from Chicago—up 1,100 from a normal southbound day, according to a spokesman.

Rail Traffic

There was heavy rail traffic reported also on the New York Central Railroad's recently revised "Empire State" service between New York City and Albany.

Nearly half a million passengers were expected to embark and debark from 12,400 airliners in New York's three major airports from Friday through Tuesday, a 16 per cent increase over last year.

Airlines in Chicago were trying to turn the travel crush at O'Hare Airport into a profit for Travelers Aid by providing volunteers to solicit a special collection for the aid group.

Terrific traffic congestion was reported Friday around Los Angeles International Airport. The California Highway Patrol said there was heavy congestion on all freeways leading from the Los Angeles metropolitan area.

A Greyhound bus spokesman in Los Angeles said there was "heavy traffic but we're handling it as fast as possible with no undue delay."

U.N.'s Cyprus Force to Stay

3-Month Extension OK'd Unanimously In Security Council

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — After two weeks of haggling, the U.N. Security Council has agreed on a resolution aimed at keeping peace on Cyprus by extending the life of the U.N. peace force there for three more months.

But members warned that long-range problems plaguing the troubled Mediterranean island still must be settled.

The resolution, adopted unanimously Friday by the 15-nation council, called on Greece, Turkey and Cyprus to show the "utmost moderation and restraint and to refrain from any act that might aggravate the situation."

It called on the three disputants to avail themselves promptly of the "good offices" offered by Secretary-General U Thant.

Thant told the council he would act at once to make arrangements with the countries, contributing troops to permit the force to remain on Cyprus. Its mandate, in effect since March 1964, would have expired next Tuesday.

Ambassador Orban Eralp of Turkey called for increased authority for the U.N. peacekeeping force on the island to prevent attacks on Turkish Cypriot villages.

Owner of Dogs to be Prosecuted in Deaths Of Two Young Boys

AMHERST, Va. (AP) — Two counts of involuntary manslaughter have been filed against the owner of a mongrel and two German shepherds which were reportedly among dogs that attacked and killed two small children last Sunday.

"I fully expected this to happen," Ernest George Floyd said Friday night of the move by an Amherst County prosecutor.

The prosecutor said he believed Floyd didn't keep the dogs under proper charge and that "he knew they were vicious."

Cult Predicts Deaths Of Most in Population

COPENHAGEN (AP) — Hundreds of Danes who are members of a cult led by a 46-year-old cab driver believe that an atomic war will kill two-thirds of the earth's population by midnight Sunday.

Earth won't be destroyed but millions of flying saucers will land and transport the earthlings who are left to outer space where their spiritual level will be raised, they believe.

The cab driver predicting all this is Knud Weiking, pronounced Viking. He says his information comes from Orthon, who he describes as leader of the galaxy that contains earth.

Weiking tells this story of his "vision": Orthon came to him last March. At first the cab driver only heard his voice but later he showed up in person. He has long hair and dreamy eyes. When he talks through Weiking, he uses phrases from the Bible and lectures on cosmic laws.

"Many people think this message is fatal, but it is really a message of joy. One third of the population on Earth will be rescued from the atomic war", says Weiking.

LBJ Heads for Rome After Stop in Vietnam

Gives GIs Greetings of Christmas

CAM RANH BAY, Vietnam (AP) — President Johnson brought Christmas greetings and his personal thanks to the well and wounded at this huge U.S. military base today, pledging, "What you have done will not have been in vain."

"The enemy cannot win, now, in Vietnam . . . You have seen to that," he said.

Now, reports in Rome and Washington said, he wanted to explain personally to the Pope why the United States is pursuing its course in Vietnam. The pontiff issued a fresh call Friday for the United States to suspend bombing of North Vietnam and for the Communists "to give a sign of serious will for peace."

Word of Johnson's planned visit to the Pope came from both Italian and American government sources in Rome. Both, however, said that though the arrival was scheduled it was always possible Johnson might change his plans at the last moment.

Ahead With Plans

The American Embassy and the Vatican have been going ahead with plans on the assumption that the Johnson visit was set and Italian Communists prepared to stage anti-American demonstrations.

An informed source in Madrid said Johnson's plane would refuel and he would spend tonight there on his way home. What began as a trip to memorial rites in Australia for Prime Minister Harold E. Holt, who has been given up for drowned, was turning into an around the world flight.

Washington sources believe this would be the first continuous around the world flight made by a President while in office. They said several, including Ulysses S. Grant, have traveled around the world but not while in office.

Leaving Australia, Johnson winged into the sprawling U.S. Air Force base at Khorat, Thailand, Friday, to visit airmen, snatched four hours sleep,

Air Raids Continue

War Sputters as Truces Near

SAIGON (AP) — With holiday truce periods only hours away, ground fighting in the Vietnam war sputtered almost to a halt today and U.S. fighting men received a surprise Christmas season visitor—President Johnson.

Flying up from Australia, where he attended memorial services for Prime Minister Harold E. Holt, the President visited American pilots in Thailand and then spent nearly two hours with U.S. troops at the secure combined forces base at Cam Ranh Bay in South Vietnam.

The guerrillas declared they would stop fighting at 1 a.m. Sunday (noon today EST). The South Vietnamese government's announced 24-hour truce, to be observed by the 475,000 or so U.S troops in Vietnam, begins at 6 p.m. Sunday (5 a.m. EST).

Air raids kept up, meanwhile. Aiming at suspected Red artillery positions and supply lines northeast of the U.S. Marine outpost at Con Thien, the high-altitude, eight-engine B52s returned to the demilitarized zone for the second straight day despite the threat of SAM missiles. The North Vietnamese fired three SAMs at B52s Wednesday night but the big bombers escaped, the U.S. Command said.

The command reported two Navy fighter-bombers were shot down by ground fire Friday while flying missions over North Vietnam and both pilots are missing.

The locations were not revealed but among Navy pilot's targets Friday were the northern area of the demilitarized zone and a cargo transfer point near Thanh Hoa, about 80 miles south of Hanoi.

One of the planes was an A7 Corsair II,—the first new attack bomber to be shot down since the model went into combat earlier this month.

The two fighter-bombers brought to 769 the announced number of U.S. plane losses over North Vietnam.

The northeast monsoons restricted American air strikes over North Vietnam Friday, but Air Force pilots guided by radar hit Kep Airfield 98 miles northeast of Hanoi and a railroad yard 43 miles northwest of the North Vietnamese capital.

Hit Supply Point

Marine pilots flying all-weather A6 intruders attacked the Yen Bai storage area 64 miles northwest of Hanoi and another supply point 15 miles northwest of Haiphong while Navy planes bombed military installations in the North Vietnamese panhandle.

American air power was expected to be grounded during the truce period, the first time it has been held back from action since the cease-fire on Buddha's birthday last May.

Although allied ground troops are not committed to observe the three-day truce declared by the Viet Cong, most field units began pulling back toward their home bases today, anticipating the one-day Christmas pause announced by the South Vietnamese government.

A UH1 helicopter flying U.S. infantrymen into a landing zone was ripped by guerrilla riflemen Friday, and crashed and burned. Troops of the 1st Infantry Division fought their way out of the zone and reported killing 10 enemy soldiers in the 10-minute battle 54 miles northwest of Saigon. American casualties were put at three helicopter crewmen and five soldiers wounded.

Two U.S. sailors were killed and 15 wounded when Viet Cong sappers blew up a Navy patrol station with satchel charges on the central coastline south of Qui Nhon. A Korean civilian also died in the attack. Three guerrillas were killed as they tried to flee the area.

Killed in Action

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department said Friday that Marine Lance Cpl. Terrance Beck of Wausau, Wis., died Friday of wounds sustained in action Wednesday in Vietnam. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley F. Beck.

Denial of Passes Means Berliners Can Only Wave

BERLIN (AP) — Again this year, Christmas in Berlin is a season of being divided.

For a few West Berliners there will be "hardship" passes to cross through the Communist wall to visit friends or relatives in the East. For a few East Berlin pensioners there also will be special crossing passes.

But the vast majority of the city's 3.3 million people, 2.2 million in the West, will be able to do nothing more than wave across the wall.

It is the second Christmas in a row that the Communist East Germans have refused to issue passes for the West Berliners to go to the East. It is the fourth passless Christmas since the wall went up in August 1961.

It is now 18 months since the last seasonal passes were issued and since negotiations for a new East-West pass agreement were broken off over the issue of an East German demand for recognition. The West does not recognize East Germany.

West German Foreign Minister Willy Brandt, himself West Berlin mayor until a year ago, said this week that the pass issue was part of an East German campaign to promote uneasiness among West Berlin's people.

The East Germans, however, have been operating a hardship pass office for months without any formal agreement.

About 3,000 passes a month are issued and usually a West Berliner can obtain one, for such things as weddings, deaths, births or serious illness in his East Berlin family.

Except for the elderly, East Berliners have been shut off from the West since 1961.

On Christmas Day, some of the many people waving across will have written and told relatives to be at a certain place at a certain time. They will hold up children, especially new born babies.

Carefully watching will be beefed up East German border patrols with their machine-guns, dogs, bunkers, watch towers, trip wires, sirens, searchlights, flares and motorcycles. The guards have orders to shoot any fleeing East German caught in the final "death strip" before the wall

Kennedy Christmas Card

Or Maybe RFK in '72

NEW YORK (AP) — The Robert F. Kennedys' Christmas card is splashed with garish color, done in psychedelic design and asks a puckish, possibly political, question.

On the card front pink letters spell out "Merry Christmas & A Happy New Year" on a field of red, orange and yellow covered with tear-drop-like shapes of blue, green and purple.

The centerfold of the card shows the senator's 10 children in, on and around an antique car against a violet background. Above the car is a sign which reads "Santa in '67."

In the lower corner on the back is a photograph of Kennedy's face, his lips in an inscrutable smile. Above his head a balloon reads "...would you believe Santa in '68, too?"

Frank Mankiewicz, the senator's press secretary, was asked if Kennedy intended any implications about his political future with the "Santa in '68" remark.

"Political implications," replied Mankiewicz, "are in the eyes of the beholders."

Aged Woman Survives 7 Days Tied, Gagged On Floor of Basement

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP) — An elderly woman is hospitalized in fair condition Friday after surviving seven days without food or water while lying bound hand and foot on a cellar floor.

Robbers posing as church collectors forced their way into Mrs. Lotta Keller's house last Friday.

They forced the 77-year-old woman into the basement, lashed her hands and feet with clothesline and taped her mouth shut with adhesive tape.

Police and neighbors broke into the house in Pittsburgh's Mount Washington section Thursday after neighbors failed to see Mrs. Keller for a long period and mail and newspapers accumulated on her porch.

Music by Chopin Found Near Paris

PARIS (AP) — A French music expert said Friday that two hitherto lost manuscripts by Frederic Chopin had been located in a chateau near here and authenticated.

Francois Lesure, music conservator at the National Library, said that the signed manuscripts of Chopin's Waltz in G flat major, Opus 70, No. 1 and his Waltz in E flat, Opus 18 had been located in the chateau of Count Paul de la Panouses at Thoiry, about 20 miles from Paris.

Lesure said the manuscripts were found inside books and papers the family had kept since the 19th century.

"I am quite satisfied these manuscripts are the originals," said Lesure, "and this apparently is the opinion of American pianist Byron Janis who has been in contact with the family."

Lesure, who has held his post at the National Library since 1963, has written a book, "Music and Society," in addition to making numerous studies on Claude Debussy and 16th century French music.

He said the Panouses family had made no indication they would sell the manuscripts.

Sweets From Black Pete Add Sparkle to Christmas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Christmas in many lands fits the American norm, complete with Batman suits, electric trains, Christmas trees, turkey dinners church-going and hopes for an improbable snowfall. But a strictly native custom or two often adds local color.

The Netherlands, for example, is one of several places where St. Nicholas Day, Dec. 5, starts a long-run Christmas season. It's traditional to tell Dutch children that St. Nick, the original Santa Claus, comes from Spain bearing gifts.

Weeks before he arrives a Black Pete or several Black Petes drop small sweets down the chimneys. That is how Pete gets so black.

Besides filling children's shoes with goodies, the Dutch keep busy thinking up surprise presents, which they hand out on unlikely days accompanied by rhymes of a teasing nature.

Santa Flies

In Brazil Santa Claus never comes down the chimney at all — for few Brazilian homes have one. In Rio de Janeiro he arrives by helicopter to open the Christmas season the first week of December.

Turkey or ham is the favorite Christmas feast in Brazil as in the United States, with much side-munching of mixed nuts.

Puerto Rican children at Christmastime are among the world's luckiest, for their parents follow the British-American tradition of handing out gifts on Christmas Day and the Spanish tradition of presents Jan. 6, the Epiphany or day the three Kings visited the Christ child.

One wonderful island custom is the "asalto," literally "the assault." This occurs frequently during the holiday season as groups of people visit a friend and force him to throw a party.

Stock Cupboards

The wise householder is stocked up with "pasteles," a pork and plantain meal boiled in banana leaves, and "coquito," a drink of rum, coconut milk and cinnamon.

In Communist Russia Christmas has not made the breakthrough to widespread religious observance as it has in Poland and other Eastern European lands. The big Russian holiday is New Year's, complete with fir trees and gifts, and it's Father Frost, not Santa Claus, who leaves the presents. Some Russians still celebrate the old Orthodox Christmas, which comes Jan. 7.

Swiss historians claim the first Christmas tree was set up in Basel in 1850. And no Swiss home would be right without one now.

Burning Lamps

In the mountain villages of French-speaking sections, oil lamps are kept burning in the windows throughout the holy night, a custom many centuries older than the Christmas tree.

In Italy there was some resistance from the Roman Catholic Church as Santa and the Christmas tree edged in on the Bethlehem nativity scene. This Christmas, for the first time, a group of Dominican brothers plans to bring Santa to the children of the southern Adriatic city of Bari, where St. Nicholas is buried. Up to now the city paid little attention to the Western legend which drew upon the real-life story of generous St. Nick.

The charming tale of Santa winging down from the north in a reindeer-drawn sled has taken hold in recent years in Argentina, along with dreams of a white Christmas despite the certainty of a green one. It is summer in that hemisphere, and warm weather determines the choice of gifts. Bicycles, collapsible swimming pools and bathing suits are among the popular items.

Mexican Yule

Celebration of Christmas in Mexico gets under way nine days before the 25th with nightly parties, or posadas, at which the host acts the part of the Bethlehem innkeeper and guests play the roles of Mary and Joseph seeking shelter. Santa Claus and the three kings hold equal sway as symbols of the season, with the result that gifts are given on both Christmas and Epiphany.

The Christmas season in the Philippines, predominantly Roman Catholic, started Dec. 16 with a "Missa de gallo"—Mass at dawn—and it lasts until Epiphany. It's a time for carolers, hectic shopping for presents made possible by fat Christmas bonuses. Children are told that the presents found in their shoes come from the three kings who paid homage to Christ.

In Japan and Korea where Christians form a minority, thousands of others have used Christmas as an occasion for a gala spree in restaurants, cabarets and night clubs. Old pagan origins of the Christmas tree fit in well with Japanese Shinto belief and its nature worship. A nationwide drive is under way in Korea, however, to make Christmas a real religious holiday and curtail some of the revelry.

Broadway Actress Starts Writing Career

NEW YORK (AP) — Marian Winters, a leading Broadway character actress, is starting a playwriting career with a rush.

Two one-act plays are being presented this season in the ANTA matinee series, and producer Alexander H. Cohan has bought a full-length work "All Is Bright" for his first presentation next season. In addition, Miss Winters is at work on a comedy which she hopes to have ready for the 1968-'69 season.

10:30 SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS—ZONING

No. 3. Ordinance amending the county zoning ordinance transferring certain property in the Town of Dale from Agricultural District to Commercial District. (Edward J. Herzfeldt and wife.)

To The Honorable, The Board of Supervisors of Outagamie County Gentlemen:

The undersigned Board of Adjustment having held a public hearing at 10:00 o'clock A.M. on December 4, 1967, in which the consideration of the Petition of Edward J. Herzfeldt and Donna Herzfeldt, his wife, was given, pursuant to Law and after due publication of the Notice of Hearing in the Appleton Post-Crescent for two (2) successive weeks and more than fourteen (14) days prior, a copy of the Notice of Hearing having been mailed to: David Zehner, Town Clerk of Dale, Wisconsin; Stanley Perkins, Town Chairman of Dale, Wisconsin; Dennis Herrling, attorney for the Petitioners, and the Fox Valley Regional Planning Commission. The Town Board of Dale, Wisconsin, favored the Petition.

No one appeared objecting. The property to be rezoned is described as follows:

A parcel of land in the North West ¼ of the North East ¼ of Section 29, Township 21 North, Range 15 East, Town of Dale, Outagamie County, Wisconsin, bounded and described as follows: Commencing at the North West corner of the North East ¼ of said Section 29 as a point of beginning, thence Southerly along the West line of the North East ¼ of Section 29, 442 2 feet; thence Easterly parallel with the North line of the North East ¼ of Section 29, 209.2 feet; thence Northerly, parallel with the West line of the North East ¼ of Section 29, 442.2 feet to the North line of the North East ¼ of Section 29; thence Westerly along the North line of the North East ¼ of Section 29 209.2 feet to the point of beginning.

The Zoning Board having duly considered the matter now offers the following Ordinance:

BE IT ORDAINED that an Amendment to the County Zoning Ordinance transferring a certain parcel of land hereinafter described from Agricultural District to Commercial District be adopted as follows:

The County Board of Supervisors does Ordain as follows: Section 1 of the County Zoning Ordinance is amended to read: The following described parcel of land in the Township of Dale, Outagamie County, Wisconsin, is hereby transferred from Agricultural District to Commercial District, and said parcel of land is described as follows:

A parcel of land in the North West ¼ of the North East ¼ of Section 29, Township 21 North, Range 15 East, Town of Dale, Outagamie County, Wisconsin, bounded and described as follows: Commencing at the North West corner of the North East ¼ of said Section 29 as a point of beginning; thence Southerly along the West line of the North East ¼ of Section 29, 442.2 feet; thence Easterly, parallel with the North line of the North East ¼ of Section 29, 209.2 feet; thence Northerly, parallel with the West line of the North East ¼ of Section 29, 442.2 feet to the North line of the North East ¼ of Section 29; thence Westerly, along the North line of the North East ¼ of Section 29 209.2 feet to the point of beginning.

Section 2 The Outagamie County District Map which is part of the Outagamie County Zoning Ordinance, is hereby amended to effect the change made in Section 1 hereof. This ordinance shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Dated this 5th day of December, 1967.

Respectfully submitted,
Tillman, Root: — ZONING COMMITTEE

I, Mollie E. Pfeffer, County Clerk of Outagamie County, do hereby certify that the foregoing Ordinance was adopted by the County Board of Supervisors of Outagamie County at the December meeting by a vote of 43 aye, 4 absent,

Volunteer Groups Aid Needy County Families

Parties, Gifts Given by Students, Civic Units

OSHKOSH — Student groups and several civil organizations teamed up with the Winnebago County Department of Social Services to make this Christmas just a bit happier for needy families in the county.

Ken Navine, supervisor, said the department referred several of their cases to volunteer groups which provided everything from food certificates to parties for the children and families.

A total of 94 families receiving services were referred to the Family Service Bureau, Oshkosh, which issued food certificates for the Christmas meal.

Another 55 families were referred to a student group at the Wisconsin State University-Oshkosh. Student service clubs, with Mike Cooney as coordinator, collected money to buy Christmas trees for each family.

Odd Jobs at Homes

The students also helped with odd jobs around the homes of five of the families, Navine said.

On Dec. 15, a children's party was held by Alpha Phi Sorority, and Phi Sigma Epsilon fraternity, with coordinators Pat Polant and Ken Heiner.

The Women's Athletic Club, physical education majors gave a party for 22 children ages 6 to 10 on Dec. 19 at Albee Hall.

Nursery children also celebrated with a party by the Junior Women's Club which has held nursery sessions throughout the year.

At the same time, the mothers of the children were having another Christmas celebration.

The foster parents of Winnebago County held a party for all foster children on Dec. 9 at the Masonic Temple.

Civic Organizations

Several civic organizations also aided the children, Navine said.

The Neenah Lions Club presented a gift to each child in the Krueger Receiving Home, Neenah, and donated other gifts to become a permanent part of the home.

The Neenah-Menasha Kiwanis Club issued checks for all foster children living in Menasha and Our Savior Lutheran Church Cub Pack Troop 91, gave presents to children in the receiving home.

The Oshkosh Homemakers Club supplied toys and food to several families and on Dec. 23, the Neenah-Menasha Elks gave a Christmas party for other children.

The Smith School donated food baskets. The Bethel Baptist Church, Oshkosh, took care of the entire needs of one family referred to them.

"On the First Day of Christmas my true love gave to me a partridge in a pear tree." Walter Bylewski has displayed this Christmas song with mock pears and a partridge at his home, 1356 Dunning St., Menasha. Missing are three French hens, two turtle doves and other gifts for the 12 days of Christmas, but it would be difficult to get them all in the tree. (Post-Crescent Photo)

Double Tax Bills Due Again In 1965 Annexation Package

MENASHA — Because of legal foot-dragging tax bills will go out again this year from both the city and Town of Menasha treasurers to 10 owners of property in the contested 183-acre area annexed by the city in 1965.

Already, all 10 are listed as delinquent taxpayers by either the city or town in the records of county treasurer Frank Luedecke. Eight of them, when they got the two tax bills last year, chose to pay the town's — which was smaller. They wound up listed as delinquent by the city.

A ninth paid the city and is delinquent on the town's records.

The 10th paid nobody, so he shows up on both sides.

Totals Shown

The nine delinquent payments shown due the city total $7,110.54. The town claims $239.79 is overdue from two taxpayers.

The property owner who paid nobody was billed $69.49 by the city and $14.45 by the town on the same piece of property — apparently fell asleep before an indication of the amount of difference in last year's tax bills, between the two governing bodies.

The problem stems from failure by either side to move foreward a lawsuit in which the town is challenging the legality of the annexation.

While the lawsuit is in a state of suspended litigation, City Atty. Richard Steffens has advised the property is legally within the city and can only be considered otherwise if the town wins the legal battle.

The town's special attorney, George St. Peter, of Fond du Lac, nevertheless had advised the town to send tax bills to the property owners.

Will Win Case

The city attorney has occasionally objected to the failure of the town to advance the case since it took preliminary actions early in 1966. Steffens has also remarked, however, that he is confident the city will win the case and that the time is immaterial. Circuit Judge Andrew Parnell, Appleton, has pleaded with both parties to continue the proceedings, so far to no avail.

Neither side has expressed much concern over the plight of the doubly-billed taxpayers.

There are 10 taxable parcels carrying an assessed valuation of $161,300 in the territory, along with the nine tax-exempt parcels including the University of Wisconsin-Fox Valley Center, near the north edge of the annexation tract which stretches to Valley Road.

2 Injured in Crash on 41

Two persons complained of back injuries after a line of traffic accident on U.S. 41 at Vandenbroek Road at 10 p.m. Friday. Injured were Edward Cole, 40, Wabeno, driver of one car, and the passenger in his car, Sandra Cole, 22, also of Wabeno.

Their auto was struck from behind by a car driven by Jack Mayer, 24, 217 N. Durkee St., Appleton. Both vehicles were westbound on U.S. 41.

Mayer told state police he apparently fell asleep before hitting the Cole auto.

The Old Pleasant Acres Home, which may soon feel the jolt of the wrecker's all, stands in a sad state of disrepair, especially the basement which hasn't been used for living quarters in years. Residents of other floors have recently been moved to the new structure behind the old building at Winnebago. The county board recently approved the demolition of the 86-year-old building. County hospital Supt. Donald Zboray makes an inspection of one of the narrow hallways in the basement. (Post-Crescent Photos)

3½ Per Cent Increase

New Retail Outlets in NM Area Help Boost Employment Gains

NEENAH-MENASHA — New retail outlets, meaning 600 new jobs, combined with a modest increase in employment in area industries to boost the total employment in the Twin City area to 3½ per cent over the previous year.

The statistics were recently cited in the manpower report published by the Wisconsin State Employment Service (WSES). The rate of gain has gradually been slowing throughout the past several years, the report stated.

WSES expects that worker needs by area employers will be down by mid-January because of post-holiday declines in trade and winter slowdowns in construction and repair.

A distribution of unfilled openings at the end of November is as follows: 44 per cent involved worker needs for industrial work, including both skilled and entry trainee classifications; professional technical and managerial job openings constituted 15 per cent of the total; service, sales and clerical openings each accounted for about 10 per cent of the demand; and part-time and temporary jobs provided another 10 per cent of the total.

An age breakdown of the WSES applicant file shows 31 per cent were under 22 years of age; 47 per cent were 22 through 44; 18 per cent were 45-64, and only 3 per cent were 65 years of age or older.

A WSES study of the occupational potential of the registered labor supply indicates that 64 per cent of the workers are grouped in classifications associated with production operations in manufacturing industries. Clerical and sales occupations make up about 14 per cent of the file. Registrants in the professional, technical and managerial occupations have dropped to 4 per cent, service workers dropped to 6 per cent, and those seeking only part-time or temporary work comprise about 10 per cent of the file.

Some 44 per cent of the active WSES registrations have been filed by women, according to the report. This is a 10 per cent drop since September.

Employed registrants seeking a job change made up 14 per cent of the current file. Some 16 per cent of the file consists of applicants from itinerant areas while another 12 per cent represented nonresident applications.

Getting Ready for Battle — the "Battle of Bands," that is — are the members of "The Other Time," an Appleton trio scheduled to face nine other bands from this part of Wisconsin next Saturday at the Neenah-Menasha Jaycees' annual contest. The battle is to be held in St. Patrick School gymnasium in Menasha, from 1 to 5:30 p.m. Dec. 30. Admission will be $1.50 per person. The bands will be judged on the basis of musical talent, showmanship, appearance and audience appeal, with the winning combo's expenses paid to compete in the State Jaycee battle at Milwaukee. The trio above includes Steve Mendleski, left, Jeff Krueger and Curt Schwebs.

$3 Million Facility by 1971

Timetable Set for New Senior High

NEENAH — What is a PERT chart?

The new term in school circles was introduced by William Burger, member of the board of education, Tuesday, when a 1971 timetable was set for the proposed $3 million high school.

PERT is a term used by the navy in developing its Polaris atomic submarine and NASA for project Mercury.

The term stands for "program evaluation review technique," something which the board of education has always done in its own way, according to the administration. It is an efficient way for the district to plan and keep an eye on any educational project that must achieve certain objectives within a specific amount of time and with an allocated amount of money.

It includes a set of principals, methods and techniques which establishes a sound basis for effective scheduling, cost estimating, controlling and preplanning.

The proposed high school's PERT chart reads like this:

March 4, 1968 — interview architects and make selection.

April 8, 1968 — hire architect and develop architect's preliminary plan.

July, 1968 — approve preliminary plans, architect makes final plan and develops specifications.

March 24, 1969 — approval of plans and appropriate funding.

July 7, 1969 — break ground and erect foundations, plumbing, flooring, walls, roof, heating, plaster, finishing and painting.

July 5, 1971 — building complete, move into building.

Sept. 7, 1971 — school starts.

Nov. 18, 1971 — dedication.

Christmas Folk Festival Planned At Little Chute

LITTLE CHUTE — A Christmas folk festival will be presented by students at St. John Grade School at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in the grade school gym.

The school orchestra, consisting of 30 violin, piano and organ students, will participate. Seventh graders, directed by Mrs. Walter Rennebohm, will narrate the origin of the traditional Christmas folk songs.

A film strip will provide words for the community caroling. This will be the third year the school orchestra has presented a Christmas program under the direction of Sister John Boxco.

Masonic Lodge To Seat Officers

KAUKAUNA — Officers will be installed by Lodge 233, Free and Accepted Masons at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Assuming duties will be Thomas Velte, worshipful master; Lemuel Dudley, senior warden; Leslie O'Dell, junior warden; Stanley Beguhn, treasurer; Olin Dryer, secretary; Daniel Christenson, senior deacon; George Williams, junior deacon; Wilbur Haass, chaplain; Edward Geske, first steward; Louis Dahm, second steward, and Harry Conkey, tiler.

Clarence Theis is installing officer and James Pardee the installing marshal. Leading the prayer will be Raymond Nagel. Refreshments will follow the ceremony.

Kaukauna Man Fined $10 After Accident

KAUKAUNA — Francis Alears, 55, 202 Whitney St., Kaukauna, pleaded guilty of failure to yield right of way and was fined $10 when arraigned Friday before Municipal Justice Clarence O'Connor.

Alears was arrested about 4:30 p.m. Friday when the car he was driving collided with an auto being driven by Miss Jane Simon, 16, 118 W. Sixth St., Kaukauna.

The accident, at Reaume Avenue and Fifth Street, resulted in several hundred dollars damage, but no injuries.

VFW Donates Equipment to Auxiliary Unit

NEENAH-MENASHA — The Winnebago County auxiliary police unit, now more than a year old, recently added blankets and carrying cases to the equipment available on the organization's emergency van.

VFW Post 7990, Neenah, contributed the blankets and cases and joined the list of donors who have helped outfit the emergency vehicle, a converted van that members have spent considerable time renovating and fitting out. There remain many items the vehicle could use to be fully equipped, an auxiliary spokesman said.

A. W. Grambsch, chaplain, presented the blankets for the veterans' group. Sgt. Robert Berrell of the sheriff's police is advisor to the auxiliary group.

5 Receive Minor Injuries In Twin City Auto Mishaps

NEENAH-MENASHA — Five persons suffered minor injuries Friday and early today as a result of accidents in the Twin Cities.

Two separate mishaps in Neenah involved car and switch engines belonging to the Soo Line Railroad.

Gerald D. Sipple, 20, route 2, Omro, had approximately $500 in damage to his car when he collided with an engine on Main Street at the Soo Line tracks at 12:30 a.m.

Clell A. Bohm, 37, route 1, Oshkosh, had damage estimated in excess of $100 when his auto collided with a Soo Line train on W. Cecil Street and the Soo Line tracks at 4:36 a.m. Saturday.

Bohm was taken to Theda Clark Memorial Hospital by the Neenah Fire Department ambulance, where he was treated for lacerations to the scalp and right hand. He is reported in satisfactory condition.

Two boys were injured when the auto in which they were riding was struck by the car driven by Raymond Hoppe, route 1, Neenah, at 1:10 a.m. Saturday.

Injured was the driver of the auto, James H. Young, 17, 224 Edgewood Drive, Neenah, who received a bloody nose, and complained of a headache, and his passenger, Rocky Young, 15, who complained of a sore right knee. Both boys were advised to see a doctor.

The accident occurred when the Hoppe vehicle turned left in front of the Young vehicle while both cars were on S. Commercial Street. Damage in excess of $100 was reported.

Two persons received neck injuries as a result of an accident shortly before 4 p.m. Friday on the corner of Third and Racine streets between autos driven by Charles M. Gambsky, 72, 102 Main St., Menasha, and Marylin D. Braun, 30, 702 Carver Lane, Menasha, according to the Menasha Police Department.

Injured were Bradley Braun, 6, and Marylin Braun.

Appleton Youth Admits Issuing Worthless Check

Vincent Freiburger, 18, 1808 W. Pine St., was placed on probation to the State Department of Health and Social Services for one year Friday after he pleaded guilty to an amended charge of issuing a worthless check.

Freiburger, a high school student, was arraigned Dec. 19 on a forgery charge, and an attorney was appointed for him. Appleton police alleged that he issued a forged $20 check Nov. 4 at The Gold Cushion, 519 W. College Ave.

However, the reduced charge was asked Friday by Dist. Atty. Nick F. Schaefer. As conditions of probation, Freiburger is to make restitution for the bad check and repay the county for the cost of his appointed attorney.

Neenah Man Chooses 15-Day Jail Sentence

NEENAH — David Maynard, 21, 1274 County Trunk U, Neenah, pleaded no contest to a charge of speeding 45 miles per hour in a 25 m.p.h. zone in Winnebago County Court Branch 3 Wednesday, and is serving a 15-day sentence instead of paying the $50 fine plus $4.50 in costs.

Judge James Sitter fined Rocklin Morris, 19, 342 Third St., Menasha, $200 plus $4.50 in costs after Morris pleaded guilty to a charge of disorderly conduct. Morris was arrested at Frank & Pat's Pizza Place on Dec. 15.

A charge against William Schmitz, 66, 1453 Harrison St., Neenah, of furnishing beer to minors at his home, was dismissed by Judge Sitter. The arrest was made on Sept. 5.

Kimberly Churches Announce Schedule of Christmas Services

KIMBERLY — A concelebrated midnight mass will be read at Holy Name of Jesus Catholic Church preceded by organ music and hymns by the choir beginning at 11:45 p.m. Sunday.

Masses on Christmas Day will be at 4:45, 6:05, 9, 9:30 and 11 a.m. and 12:15 p.m.

A candlelight service will be held at 7:30 p.m. Sunday at the First Presbyterian Church with the Rev. John Bowe, pastor, speaking on the theme, "Shepherds."

A children's service featuring youngsters from the Christian Day School will be held at 6:30 p.m. Sunday at Mount Calvary Lutheran Church with the theme "O Come Let Us Adore Him." The Rev. Frederic Kosanke, pastor, will conduct a worship service at 9 a.m. Christmas day.

Kiwanis Round Table Slated at Little Chute

LITTLE CHUTE — The dinner meeting of the Kiwanis Club Tuesday has been cancelled because the regular meeting place will be closed, but a round table discussion will be held at the village hall at 6:30 p.m., according to George Vanderloop, publicity chairman.

Truck Fire Call

NEENAH — The Neenah Fire Department answered a call around noon Friday when a truck owned by Thilmany Pulp and Paper Co., full of bales of cardboard, was reported burning in the north lane of U.S. 41 just south of Main Street near Courtney & Plummer Inc.

"Run for Your Life," a physical fitness program at the Neenah-Menasha YWCA, brings out several businessmen each day who register miles of trotting around the gymnasium. This Christmas, one runner, Jim Fitzgerald, who has compiled 51 miles, also picked up a goose for the dinner table in a raffle among the participants. Director Robert Bruett holds the bucket for the drawing. (Post-Crescent Photo)

Seymour Youth Killed When Car Hits Tree

Edward Everson, 18, Dead on Arrival At Hospital Friday

GREEN BAY — One rural Seymour youth is dead and another in critical condition this morning after a one-car accident late Friday night about eight miles northwest of here.

Dead is Edward Everson, route 3, Seymour. In critical condition is Edward Cheslock, 19, route 3, Seymour, who was in surgery this morning at St. Mary Hospital here.

Brown County sheriff's authorities said the pair were riding in a 1967 model vehicle which was found wrapped around a tree next to a Town of Pittsfield road about 11:45 p.m. Friday.

Also in the car was Ronald Matuszak, 19, route 3, Seymour, who also is in the hospital.

Not Questioned Yet

Authorities said they have not been able to determine who was driving the vehicle, since they have been unable to question either Cheslock or Matuszak.

Everson was dead on arrival at the hospital. Cheslock underwent emergency surgery. He sustained compound fractures of both legs, both ankles, right wrist and head cuts. Matuszak sustained internal injuries and head cuts.

The car, thought by authorities to have been driven by Everson, struck a tree after going out of control after crossing a railroad track. The driver's door slammed into the tree.

Matuszak was taken immediately to the hospital after authorities removed him from the wreckage by the vehicle's right side door. Everson and Cheslock were pinned in the car and removed with the aid of a wrecker.

Raises Death Toll

The death of Everson raised Wisconsin's highway fatality toll for 1967 to 1,107.

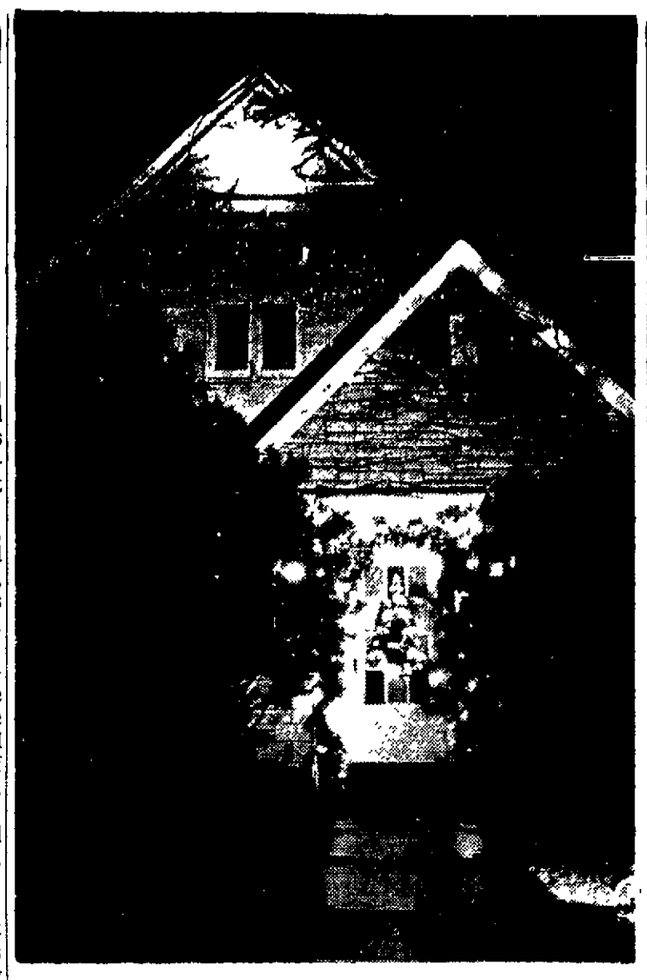

Also dead during the initial hours of the extended Christmas holiday was a 27-year-old Milwaukee man. The grim pace of death on the state's highways is running ahead of last year's, and the state may have a new record by Dec. 31 to succeed the all-time high of 1,127 deaths of 1966.

Douglas D. Thiem, 27, of Hartland, a widely-known Milwaukee businessman and a one-time sports car race driver, died Friday night after his sports car swerved off a Waukesha County road and overturned. Thiem, the executive vice president of Thiem Products Co., died at an Oconomowoc hospital about an hour and a half after the accident.

Brian D. Lenzen, 18, Menomonee Falls, was killed Friday in a three-car collision in that city. His death occurred prior to the start of the weekend counting period, which began at 6 p.m.

Franklin Kuhn, 35, Portage, died Friday in a Madison hospital of injuries suffered Dec. 15 when his car overturned in a ditch beside Highway 33 east of Portage.

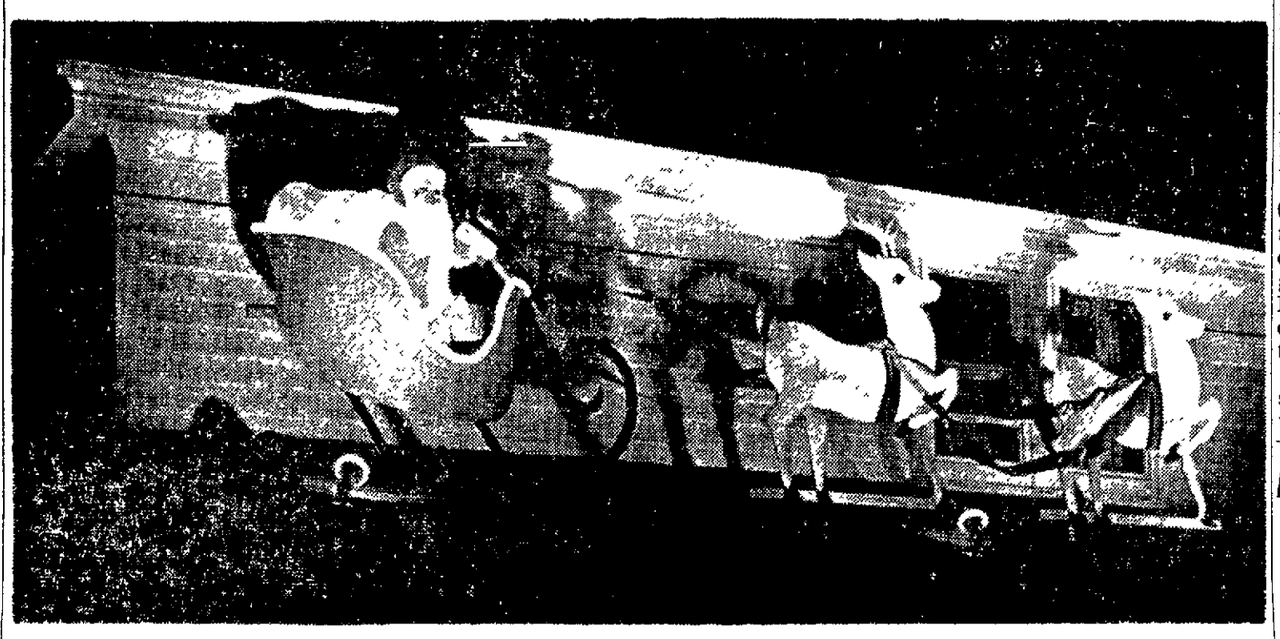

Homes 'Don' Holiday Finery

Decorations Ranging from the simple to the elaborate brighten many Appleton homes for the Christmas season and bring out admirers, despite the cold weather. Lights illuminating a small tree on one door, upper left, gives the home a welcoming air. A hand painted nativity scene in a stable of wood, complete with the shining star of Bethlehem, upper right, adds a religious touch to the front of another home. A porch roof makes an ideal setting for a jolly Santa and his reindeer. Most decorations will remain up for a few more weeks and there will be plenty of time to see them after the holiday rush. Red Truck Instead of Sleigh

Firemen Santa's Willing Helpers

BY HENRY SIMON
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

Santa Claus came in a caravan of three trucks instead of a sleigh with eight reindeer. Firemen's jackets replaced Santa's usual red suit.

But it didn't make any difference to the 20 Fox Cities families who received toys Friday afternoon.

The lights had burned brightly in the basement of Appleton's southside Fire Station No. 2 during the past two weeks, as firemen worked into the wee hours of the morning to finish repairing the toys donated by Appleton residents.

That brightness was matched by the shining eyes of youngsters who rushed to the door when they saw the red fire department truck leading the "parade" stop in front of their home.

Eager Hands Ready

Sometimes there was a struggle to fit a box of toys or a shiny tricycle through the door opening. More often than not, there were eager hands ready to grasp the new possessions, although mother might caution, "You won't get them until Christmas."

"Their eyes pop out like telescopes," one firemen noted as he discussed the afternoon's work — which was done on off-duty time.

"The hands reach right into the packages," he added.

"There are a lot of families we don't know about, families that really need help," explained a second fire department member. These are the families firemen hope to be able to help under an expansion of their program to a year-round effort.

Took 300 Man-Hours

About 300 man-hours were spent repairing the toys, which went to about 90 children in the area. A shipment for another 90 children of agricultural workers left for Wautoma Friday morning.

Funds for materials to fix the toys came from the firemen's union local, while businessmen helped by donating paint and plastic bags in which to store the presents once they had been repaired.

Extra loving care was evident in the dolls, which were repaired and clothed by members of the union auxiliary.

Bikes, trucks, trikes, hobby horses, dolls and games of all types filled the hose drying rack in the basement of Station No. 2. The hoses carefully stretched out on the floor were evidence that the firemen were going to some bother to help those in need.

The ping pong table was covered with paint brushes, power tools and glue. Despite all the work and trouble, not one fireman gave any sign of disillusionment with the project.

Firemen Larry Krause coordinated the effort, checking with the Salvation Army for names of families who might appreciate toys. The Salvation Army acts as a clearing center for groups such as firemen and policemen — who spread Christmas cheer with special projects during the yuletide.

Krause explained that shelves are to be built at northside Station No. 4 so repaired toys can be stored there the year around. Then work will go on a 12-month basis instead of running only from October through December.

This will be coordinated with the work of the auxiliary, which often assists families struck by fire.

The only fire evident Friday was the warmth of the "thank yous" from children to whom Christmas had become a bit more meaningful. That was the inner glow which kept firemen warm when they ventured from their trucks to take the place of Santa for the few hours of a frigid, blustery afternoon.

Appleton to Mail Tax Bills Tuesday

20,574 Statements Expected To Produce Levy, Special Assessments of $11 Million

The City of Appleton will send out "season's greetings" in the form of 20,574 real estate and personal property tax bills the day after Christmas.

Treasurer Ray Feuerstein announced Friday afternoon the bills are ready for mailing and will be shipped to the Post Office Tuesday morning.

Property taxes to be collected for 1968 add up to $10,734,968 compared with this year's $9,412,457.

Feuerstein said notices of special assessments will also be put in the mails, making the overall tax roll for the coming year $11,214,766.

Special Assessments

Heading the list of special assessments are street improvements, $426,203; street oiling, $7,174; weed control, $7,901; and tree plantings, $4,214.

The bills were processed by the city finance department and then forwarded to the treasurer's office for mailing. Figures for special assessments had to be supplied in advance by the treasurer's staff before the statements could be prepared.

Finance Director Henry Schreve said his staff put in extra hours again this year to get the bills ready after getting started later than usual due to the lengthy budget deliberations by the city council.

Real estate taxes to be collected for 1968 total $9,501,467. Class A personal property taxes (merchants stock) total $935,166 and Class B (furniture and fixtures) call for a $298,335 collection.

Rate Breakdown

A breakdown of the Appleton tax rate shows 51.96 per cent of the money to be collected by the city is for public school purposes while 28.92 per cent represents the cost of all municipal services. The rate makeup:

City school purposes, $33.29.

City operations, $18.50.

County levy, $9.55.

District vocational levy, $2.25.

State levy, 44 cents. Gross rate, $64.06.

Sales tax credit, $3.75. Net payment, $60.31.

$10,000 Assessment

It means the owner of a home assessed at $10,000 will have a gross tax bill of $640.60, but with the credit refund the net payment amounts to $603.10.

In Calumet County (Second precinct of the 9th Ward) the county levy is lower and results in a net rate of $57.45 per $1,000 assessed valuation.

Feuerstein expects his office to be deluged with tax payments, starting Tuesday afternoon and continuing through the week.

Those payments received in the mail and postmarked before midnight, Dec. 31 will be stamped as having been paid in 1967. Many persons pay immediately to include the sums on their 1967 state and federal income tax returns.

Feuerstein said his office will accept tax payments daily next week from 9 a.m. to noon and 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. Special hours Saturday, Dec. 30 will be from 9 a.m. to noon.

Store Burglary Suspect Held In Cincinnati

In Jewelry Theft; Charged With Role Fights Extradition

Harold B. Lutchins, 34, Cincinnati, whom police say is a prime suspect in the burglary last Sunday at Martin J. Hupka Jewelry Store, 336 W. College Ave., was taken into custody Friday by Cincinnati police.

Appleton Police Department detectives said the man was apprehended on a parole violation shortly after Dist. Atty. Nick F. Schaefer issued a criminal complaint and Judge Gustave J. Keller issued a burglary warrant for Lutchins.

Fight Extradition

Detectives said that Lutchins would be held in jail in Cincinnati, as a parole violator, until the warrant is received from Appleton. Lutchins reportedly already has indicated he will fight extradition. Authorities here said that extradition proceedings will be the next step in the case.

If he refuses to waive extradition, proceedings are started between the governors' offices in Wisconsin and Ohio.

Watches valued at about $5,000 were stolen from the downtown Appleton jewelry store during a daring noontime burglary last Sunday. A Combined Locks man who witnessed part of the burglary said there were two men involved.

He furnished police with descriptions of the burglars and their car.

Neighbor Pays Visit— Through Wall

A neighbor unexpectedly dropped into the James Nemecek home, 35 Fairway Court, with a crash Friday afternoon.

The result of the visit was a caved-in wall and a wrecked car.

Mrs. Merrill D. Cornell, 29, 40 Fairway Court, told Appleton police she was backing her car out of her driveway when the car suddenly starting picking up speed and smashed backwards into the house. There was no injuries.

Ruth Miers, 31, 1821 S. Van Dyke St., Appleton, was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital with a cut eye by Larry's ambulance after her car hit a bridge signal light post on S. Oneida Street at 10:50 p.m. Friday.

She told police she could not remember what happened before the accident.

Post Office Bare

Yule Mail Rush Is 'In the Bag'

A complete cleanup of Christmas mail was reported this morning by Appleton postal officials.

The last of the incoming mail was sorted and given to route men at 7:45 a.m. Saturday and the special crews working on overtime were sent home at 8:30 a.m. "The post office is bare," one official said at 9 a.m.

However, he indicated the department would not be able to deliver mail coming in late Saturday until Tuesday, except for special delivery letters and perishable goods. These two classes of mail will be delivered both Sunday and Christmas Day.

Box mail also will be sorted and put into the post office boxes on Sunday.

Most postal patrons apparently heeded requests to mail early as the peak volume at the post office was recorded last week, according to Postmaster Francis Sumnicht. Peak out-going days were Dec. 13 and 15 while peak incoming days were Dec. 14 and 16.

Total mail volume was running about 6½ per cent ahead of last year with an increase of about 350,000 pieces.

Woman Reports Theft From Car

Carol Marek, Sherwood, reported to the Outagamie County Sheriff's Department Thursday night that Christmas gifts and packages valued at about $50 and several articles of clothing were taken from her car.

She said the car was parked behind the Left Guard Charcoal House on W. College Ave., where she is employed. There reportedly was no sign of forced entry, although she said she had locked the vehicle.

Given Stern Lecture

Men on Probation for Burglarizing College

Glen P. Behrendt, 22, Marinette, and Jon V. Laughlin, 22, 833 E. Washington St., Appleton, got a stern lecture and were placed on two years probation Friday afternoon after they pleaded no contest and were found guilty of burglarizing Outagamie County Teachers College early Thursday.

As conditions of their probation to the State Department of Health and Social Services, the two men must split the cost of repairing damage they did to the school building. It was estimated at $100.

Caught With Money

They appeared in court Thursday but their cases were continued to Friday to allow them both time to retain attorneys. Behrendt is a student at the college. Their attorneys waived preliminary hearings for the men, who were then bound over to the felony branch of Outagamie County Court.

Lt. Robert Main of the Kaukauna Police Department testified in court Friday that the men were apprehended behind the school by two patrolmen about 3 a.m. Thursday. They had a large amount of change in their possession, and an inventory showed that more than $160 was missing from an office, a juke box, and a soft drink vending machine. All of the stolen money was recovered, Main said.

According to Main, the men were caught after entering the school for the second time. They had stolen a large amount of money the first time Thursday morning, then went to Behrendt's apartment where they split the take. They returned to the school and broke open a juke box, then ransacked offices.

Main said the men were drinking in a tavern near the school before committing the offense.

Candidates Face New Election Laws

Broehm Outlines Changes Which Apply to 1968's Spring Voting

There have been changes made in Wisconsin election procedures which Appleton office seekers will discover Jan. 2 — the opening day to take out nomination papers for the 1968 primary.

"Actually the changes have been significant but not radical," was the comment today of City Clerk Elden Broehm.

Broehm recently attended a two-day "refresher course" on clerk's office in the city hall. elections at Madison sponsored by the League of Wisconsin Municipalities.

The primary election is set for Tuesday, March 5, and the general election, Tuesday, April 2.

Offices Open

Posts to be filled include the mayor, clerk, city attorney, treasurer, two school commissioners and 10 aldermen.

And with the advent of 1968, the term of office for mayor will be lengthened from two to four years at $15,000 annually.

New election laws were adopted by the Legislature last July 14.

Broehm explained that under the revised regulations and procedures:

Candidate Requirements

— Candidates must be Wisconsin residents for six months rather than one year as in the past. This was changed by referendum vote last November.

— The period for circulating nomination papers is from Jan. 1 to 5 p.m. the last Tuesday of the month (Jan. 30). Previously, there had been a 60-day period.

— The number of signatures needed for city-at-large offices is not less than 200 nor more than 400, compared with the past formula of not less than 100 nor more than 10 per cent of the vote obtained by the last successful candidate.

— Aldermanic aspirants have more work to do, the requirement being that nomination paper-signers must represent not less than 1 per cent nor more than 10 per cent of the votes received by the last successful candidate. The past formula required not less than 20 nor more than 100 signers.

Designate Officer

The law now permits the board of education to designate a person as certifying officer for issuing and receiving nomination papers. And the site doesn't necessarily have to be city hall.

However, the Appleton Board requested Broehm to handle those duties as he has in the past.

Under Appleton ordinance, a primary election is necessary whenever two or more persons seek the same office. In the case of school board elections, a primary will be required next year if there are four or more candidates.

Broehm also pointed to other changes affecting his duties as the city's chief election officer.

Publish Notice

For example, next week he will have to publish an official notice in the newspaper to advise the public of the offices to be filled. And the new law requires the name of the present officer office-holder be listed.

The facsimile ballot — listing all the names of primary candidates — will be published (Feb. 26 and March 15) instead of once before the election as in the past.

Because of other election law revisions the present 105 city election workers and their alternates will remain the same through 1969 rather than change in 1968.

College Students Urged to Register

College students home for the holidays were advised today to register for 1968 elections if they have not already done so.

Those who will be 21 years old on or before the March 5 primary are eligible, according to City Clerk Eldon Broehm.

Other Appleton residents not registered may do so during regular office hours at the Changes of address may be phoned or mailed to the clerk.

Chimney Fire

Appleton firemen were called to the David Teff residence, 1409 W. Taylor St., at 9:35 p.m. Friday for a chimney fire. Firemen extinguished burning logs from the fireplace and permitted the chimney to burn itself out. There was no damage.

Drysdale Signs Pro Agreement

Fourth to Sign Pact for Tour By Tennis Stars

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — Cliff Drysdale, South Africa's No. 1 tennis player, has signed a professional contract to join Dave Dixon's $800,000 world championship tennis tour, it was announced here Friday night.

The 25-year-old Davis Cup team star will be one of the eight players on the new pro championship tour being promoted by Dixon with financial backing from Lamar Hunt.

Dixon said the pro contract was a long-term agreement. Details were not disclosed.

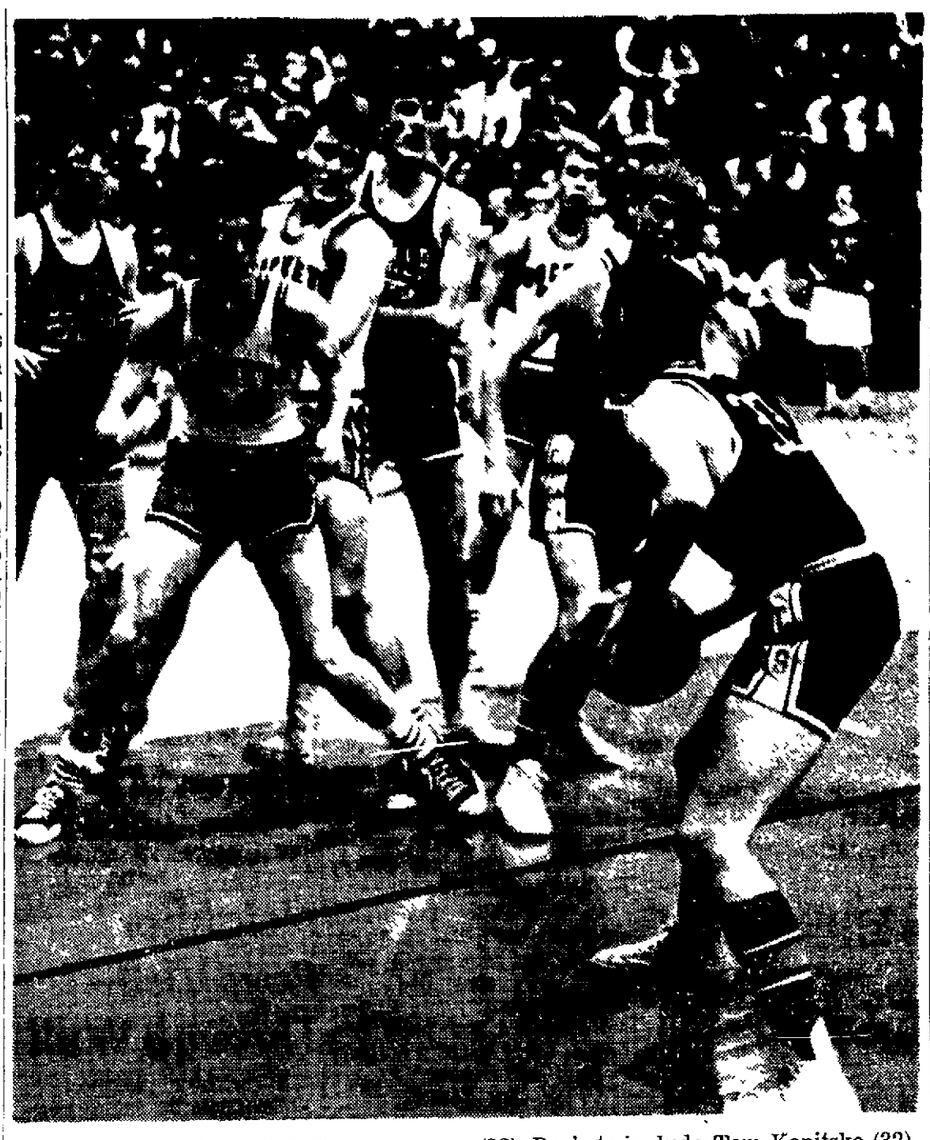

Drysdale was out of action for most of the 1967 season after undergoing surgery. In 1966, he held the No. 7 world ranking and was a semifinalist at Wimbledon.

"Cliff is a great tennis player and a highly intelligent, articulate young athlete who will be a crowd pleaser whenever he goes," said Dixon.

Already signed by Dixon for the pro tour are Dennis Ralston, Butch Buchholz and Pierre Barthes.

"We hope to sign John Newcombe and Tony Roach of Australia after they complete their Davis Cup matches," said Dixon. "And also Roger Taylor of England and Nickie Pilic of Yugoslavia."

Pilic will be making his last amateur appearance in the Sugar Bowl tennis tourney here next week.

Clintonville Guard Bob Rew was confronted by a wall of players, both teammates and Neenah opponents, in Friday's Mid-Eastern Conference game at Neenah. Other Truckers are Ray Grant (25), John Torborg (43) and Mark Paape (23). Rockets include Tom Kopitzke (32), Dan Jankowski and Lee Olson, in the background. Neenah's 94-59 victory kept it in sole possession of first place. (Post-Crescent Photo)

"I'll tell you this, I never want to play in this gym again this year! We just got too many, too easy too early."

The voice belonged to a limp head coach Bill Richards, who had just watched his Sheboygan North squad squeak past Appleton East, 76-74, in overtime on the Appleton West court Friday night.

Two weeks ago, the same Raiders had dropped their only Fox River Valley Conference game to date to Appleton West in the last minute of play in Seims gym and guard Mike Martin wound up wearing the "goat's horns." In that game, with North ahead by three points with seven seconds left, Richards had told his players to "just stand there" in a zone pattern. If West scored a basket, so what — North would still win by one point.

At that point the ball came in to West's Tom Hintz, and instead of staying away from the Terror star, Martin decided himself that wouldn't be exciting enough. He tried to block Hintz' shot. The bucket was good, Martin was whistled for a foul, and Hintz went on to tie the game up with a free throw. The Terrors went on to win, and Martin had the reddest face in town.

All 4 Points

But Martin, a 5-9 senior, turned from goat to hero in a matter of 2 minutes and 8 seconds last night for the Raiders, as he accounted for all four of his team's points in the overtime.

Martin had sunk one free throw in the second period after seeing brief action in a relief role, but had spent most of his time warming the bench. Then, with the score deadlocked at 72-all, Martin rifled in a line-drive jumper from the arc to put North up by two. The little southpaw threw in a pair of free throws with 17 seconds showing to increase the Raiders' lead to four.

Still, there was life in the Patriots. Blaine Reichelt, who had fouled Martin to set up the last two gift tosses, shoved in a rebound shot with nine seconds remaining and East subsequently harrassed North's Rich Peterson into traveling in the backcourt.

That left East with the ball with four seconds left and the Pats quickly called for a time-out. Time for one shot. Rick Stach threw the ball into play to Bob Meyer about 10 feet in bounds on the left sidecourt. Meyer turned, hesitated, and then was wide with a jumper from 20 feet away.

"We just lost our composure," a downcast East coach Bill Morse said afterward. We really played erratic . . . it would be good and then later sour, just terrible. I think we should have won easily."

The Pats, now 3-2 in league play, might have done just that. They held an 8-point lead and the ball at 64-56 with 4:05 to play in the fourth period. But it was now that the Raiders were to change from a zone-press defense to a man-to-man press, and the strategy turned the game around.

Morse said later "we couldn't set up" after that. The Patriots had lost the ball plenty of times on turnovers due to the zone press, but at the same time had gained some valuable fast break baskets in breaking away from that defense.

Thompson and Burke Pace Marquette Past Portland, 73 to 65

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Marquette University won its sixth basketball game in seven starts as the Warriors downed the University of Portland Friday night 73-65.

George Thompson scored 24 points and the Warriors used multiple defenses. The combination proved too much for the Oregon school — now 0-7.

Portland dropped behind early in the game, but managed to tie the score midway in the first half. By the intermission, however, the Warriors held a lead of 44-37.

In the second half, Portland hit a seven-minute cold streak and Marquette walked away with the game.

Jim Burke had 20 points for Marquette and Brian Brunkhorst had 17, while the Warrior defense held Portland's highest scorer to 16.

The Marquette-Portland tilt was the second half of a doubleheader. The first game was won by the University of Pacific 103-78 over Linfield College.

The Warriors now head for the Rainbow Classic tournament at Honolulu, Hawaii. Ohio State will be the first test there for Marquette, which is off to its most impressive start since the 1960-61 season.

Oilers Battle Miami in Key Game Tonight

Win by Houston Will Clinch AFL Eastern Crown

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The Houston Oilers, sporting an awesome defensive unit, are ruled a one touchdown favorite to beat Miami tonight and clinch the Eastern Division title in the American Football League.

A victory or tie will do it for the Oilers, 8-4-1 for the season and one game up on New York. Each has one game to go. Should the Oilers falter against improving Miami, the Jets could force a playoff for the Division title by beating the Chargers in San Diego Sunday.

Thee Oilers, who finished in a tie for the bottom with Miami last season, will stake their bid for the title on quarterback Pete Beathard, a steadily improving offense and the league's top defensive unit.

The defense must contain Miami's Bob Griese, the rookie quarterack who has led the Dolphins to three victories in their last four games. They're 4-9 for the year, but improving. An indication was last week's 41-32 victory over Boston in which Griese completed 17 of 30 passes for 270 yards and three touchdowns.

He didn't have one intercepted. In fact, he hasn't one interception in his last 98 attempts. The league record is 128.

But he figures to have a tougher time than usual against the Oilers, whose fierce pass rush is led by 260-pound defensive end Pat Holmes.

"Holmes," says Coach Wally Lemm, "is one of the greatest defensive linemen I have not only coached, but seen. He's remarkable. With all his size, he has great agility and speed."

Lemm uses the New York game, when the Oilers intercepted six of Joe Namath's passes, as an example of the value Holmes lends to the defense.

"He was," Lemm said, "the primary cause of the interceptions because he put tremendous pressure on the passer. He put on a strong rush, went in with his hands high and caused Namath to throw the ball sooner and higher than he planned."

The Oiler defense has allowed only 17 touchdowns and 189 points this season, best in the league.

Houston has won four of its last five, including a 17-14 squeaker past Miami four weeks ago on the Oilers' home field, and a 24-17 decision over San Diego last week.

Beathard completed 14 of 24 passes for 188 yards and two touchdowns in that one, while Hoyle Granger went over 1,000 yards in ground gained. He's got 1,034 to 1,216 for Boston's Jim Nance, who has completed his season.

West Beats Oshkosh in FRVC Tilt

OSHKOSH — The Appleton West Terrors, with the help of an overpowering defense, held off an Oshkosh High School rally in the second half to defeat the Indians, 55-51.

It was the fifth straight victory for the Dick Emanuel-coached Terrors (5-1) who retained undisputed possession of second place in the Fox River Valley Conference behind Manitowoc (4-0). Oshkosh now has a 3-3 league mark.

West, led by senior Tom Hintz, took a 22-21 lead in a run-and-shoot first quarter. At the half, the Indians, found themselves down, 33-30.

But the Terrors' lead was cut to a single point at the end of the three-quarter mark as the Indians came out of the half with fire in their eyes.

Having cooled off a little, West stalled the game at the start of the final period hoping for the good shot. But the Indians soon found a way to break the Appleton stall and scored several easy baskets.

The Terrors were not to be denied as they soon gained a 4-point lead which they held to the end with the help of a ball control.

Leader of the victory was Hintz who was strong on the boards and the night's top scorer with 22 points Carl Hunt pitched in 12 key points to help the Terror cause.

Jim Strasser lead the Indians with 16 points, and Tom Last had 14.

20th M-E Win in Row

Rockets Whip Truckers

Hit 68 Per Cent

Shawano Cagers Top New London, 85-41

BY DAVE JENKINS

NEW LONDON — Shooting 68 per cent from the floor and 83 per cent from the foul stripe, a torrid Shawano High School basketball team notched its first Mid-Eastern Conference win here Friday night by trouncing the New London Bulldogs, 85-41.

The cold-shooting Bulldog quint was completely outclassed by a bigger and stronger Indian team which finished with a 38-18 edge in field goals and a 42-17 edge on the boards. Paced by Bob Johnson, with 26 points, and Bill Gipp, with 25, the Indians peppered the nets from all the angles of the courts, getting an equal success from the outside and on drives.

New London managed to gain the lead in the first quarter when Bill Bieckmann scored off the opening jump. Even then the effort was almost discounted when the time-keeper failed to start the clock but the coaches agreed to put five seconds on the clock and allow the basket.

Then, with less than two minutes left in the first quarter, Johnson laced a charity shot for a 13-12 lead.

Has Narrow Lead

Shawano began the second quarter with a narrow, 15-14 lead, but Johnson, a 6-4 senior forward, poured in 18 points to lead the Indians to a 40-20 advantage at halftime.

Gipp added 12 points in the third period as the rout continued, and the Indians forged to a 63-29 lead.

The harrassed and hurried Bulldogs shot only 29 per cent from the floor and 45 per cent from the free throw line. Their high scorer was Greg Wing with eight points.

The loss leaves New London alone in the cellar of the M-E with no wins in four starts, while Shawano is 1-3.

NEENAH — Spectacular shooting, plus a stingy defense in the first half propelled Neenah High School off to a swift start and a subsequent 94-59 Mid-Eastern Conference triumph over Clintonville Friday night.

The victory, the fourth straight of the current season and the 20th over a 3-year span against M-E opposition, assured the Rockets of undisputed first place at the vacation break.

Clintonville dropped into a third place tie with Menasha, Two Rivers and Kaukauna with a 2-2 mark.

Coach Doug Martin's forces blistered the nets for 20 field goals in 32 attempts enroute to a 44-15 halftime lead. They had the good shots and didn't miss very often.

The Truckers, on the other hand, couldn't penetrate the Neenah defense and although they fired away 26 times in the first 16 minutes only connected on five.

Clintonville never led and was down by 16-3 and 20-5 scores in the first period and 23-6 at its conclusion. At one juncture, the Rockets hit 10 straight points.

String Of 8

The hosts finished a string of eight points early in the second quarter and put together a similar streak later in the frame in blasting to a 29-point halftime lead.

Clintonville, in the third period, hit 17 points to exceed by a basket, its entire first half production. The Rockets, however, popped in 20 and doubled the score 64-32 going into the last stanza.

Neither club worried about defense in the last quarter and the Twin Citians, with reserves on duty, pumped home 30 points while the Truckers poured in 27. Both shot well — Clintonville 12 of 24 and Neenah 11 of 20.

Dan Jankowski garnered Neenah scoring honors with 20 points. Dale Magedanz hit 19 and Dan Blank, starting for the ill Ned Kramer, posted 12.

Magedanz blocked five Clintonville shots, Jankowski cleared the boards with regularity and Blank and Mark Eastwood set up several scores with their passes.

Mark Pappe topped the Clints with 16 points, half in the last quarter. John Torborg added 15.

The visitors posted 25 of 68 field goal tries and hit nine of 11 free throws chances. Neenah finished with 40 of 85 from the floor and garnered 14 of 20 from the gift line.

Big Pass Rush Key in Cleveland, Dallas Tilt

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — The pass rush just might be the key to victory in Sunday's Dallas-Cleveland battle for the Eastern Conference championship of the National Football League.

Especially since two of the best rushes in the business will be at work and the two quarterbacks—Don Meredith of Dallas and Frank Ryan of Cleveland—might appear a little more susceptible than most.

It wasn't by design but Meredith and Ryan seem to be trying to outdo each other as to whom has been most injured.

Both are due to be in good condition at the start of the struggle but Ryan has a bruised left forearm that might give him trouble under a strong push. And Meredith plans to play without a mask that had been covering a broken nose.

Meredith also may be favoring a twisted knee by bandaging it up.

Both teams have vicious pass rushes. The Dallas front four of Willie Townes, Jethro Pugh, Bob Lilly and George Andrie have trapped the opposing quarterback 45 times—second in the league and No. 1 among the teams left in the NFL championship fight.

The Cleveland rushers are Bill Glass, Walter Johnson, Jim Kanicki and Paul Wiggin and they have 41 traps.

Also, Cleveland, according to Coach Blanton Collier, is blitzing more than any other Cleveland team in history.

Dallas doesn't blitz much but the last time it played Cleveland, the Cowboys did it eight times, intercepted three passes, one for a touchdown, dropped the quarterback four times and jarred him six.

Cleveland was doing some blitzing, too. Linebacker Jim Houston crashed Meredith and knocked him out of the game for one play.

Cleveland, it was revealed in the statistics, blitzed 30 per cent of the time, which is about twice as much as Dallas ordinarily does.

Cleveland throws the best rushing offense in the league against the No. 1 rushing defense, which might mean a standoff there. And if both pass rushes are working well, there might be a standoff there, too.

But don't worry about a tie. A sudden death playoff is scheduled. If they tie, the team that scores first in the overtime wins.

A crowd of about 65,000 now is forecast for the game starting at 1:35 p.m. (CST) in the Cotton Bowl, with Dallas seeking to repeat with the Eastern Conference championship. Cleveland held it the two previous years, was world champion in 1964.

UCLA '5' Hands Bradley its First Setback, 109-73

Alcindor Suffers Minor Injury; LSU's Maravich Hits 58 Points

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

UCLA crushed previously unbeaten Bradley 109-73 for its 38th straight victory, but Coach Johnny Wooden of the National Collegiate Basketball Champions feared for a few minutes that he had lost towering Lew Alcindor.

Mr. A., as the agile 7-footer is known on the UCLA campus, was accidentally hit in the right eye soon after the start of the second half of the game in Los Angeles Friday night.

Wooden sent his collegiate Player of the Year to the sidelines within a few minutes rather than take any chances. The injury turned out to be minor and big Lew will be back in action tonight against Notre Dame.

Before he left with 13 minutes left to play, Alcindor had scored 13 points and more importantly blocked 11 shots. Wooden soon took out his other regulars, but the 10th-ranked Braves from Peoria, Ill., couldn't stop the subs either.

'We Were Rusty'

UCLA hasn't played in two weeks and Wooden said the regulars "got tired. We were rusty from our layoff and I was surprised we shot as well as we did." The Bruins made 50 of 99 shots from the field.

Before the game, Bradley Coach Joe Stowell said "eight straight home game wins and then UCLA on the road—wow." Afterwards he praised UCLA as the best team he has seen. "We got more open shots than we thought we would, but except for Allen missed most of them."

Joe Allen finished high for the game with 31 points. Mike Warren, with 24, and Mike Lynn, with 22, led UCLA in snapping Bradley's eight-game winning streak.

Elvin Hayes, the Big E, broke loose for 10 points in the last three minutes to pace unbeaten Houston, second ranked to UCLA in the Associated Press poll, to an 81-76 victory over Arizona at Tucson, Ariz. Hayes finished with 28 points in leading the Cougars to their ninth in a row.

Third-ranked Vanderbilt, paced by Tom Hagan's 22 points, whipped Seton Hall 85-67 in the first round of the Vanderbilt Invitational at Nashville, Tenn., after Oregon had downed Wake Forest 76-58.

Seventh-ranked Kentucky, the only other team in the Top Ten to see action, blew an 18-point lead but came on again to beat Dayton 88-85 in the first round of the UK Invitational at Lexington, Ky. Two free throws by Dan Issel and a basket by Thad Jaracz in the last 18 seconds gave Adolph Rupp the 365th victory of his coaching career after Dayton, down 41-23, had rallied to tie at 83-83 with 90 seconds left.

South Carolina edged Cincinnati 64-61 in the other UK first-round game.

Holds off Rally

Arizona State held off a late Michigan rally and beat the Wolverines 92-91 in the final of the Sun Devil Classic at Phoenix, Ariz., after Oregon State took third place with an 49-48 squeaker over Oklahoma State.

Texas at El Paso rallied in the second half to beat San Francisco 81-61 in the final of the Sun Carnival Classic at El Paso after Southern Illinois edged Maryland 73-72 in overtime for third place.

Pistol Pete Maravich, son of Louisiana State coach Press Maravich, set a season high of 58 points in leading the Tigers over Mississippi State at Baton Rouge. Maravich got 42 of his points in the second half and set an SEC record. Bob Pettit, LSU's All-American of 13 years ago, had set the previous SEC single-game mark of 57 points in 1954.

Unbeaten New Mexico made it eight in a row by beating Creighton 82-57. In other intersectional games in the Southwest, Oklahoma City downed Baylor 83-75 and Santa Clara defeated Brigham Young 80-75.

In intersectional games on the West Coast, California beat Iowa 79-73, Stanford edged Illinois 74-72, Nevada Southern whipped North Texas 99-80 and Marquette humbled Portland 73-65.

Sweetan to Marry For Second Time

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit Lions quarterback Karl Sweetan took out a marriage license Thursday with Ruth Copeland, 21, of Detroit, a comptometer operator. No date for the wedding was disclosed.

It will be the second wedding for Sweetan, the first for his bride. Sweetan was divorced earlier this year.

Allen Isn't 'Building'

Vince Says Packers Have Nucleus for a Great Future Team

Post-Crescent News Service

MILWAUKEE — The Packers of the 1960's have been rated — at least in their championship years — among the greatest teams in pro football history.

Vince Lombardi's appraisal of the National Football League's 1967 Central Division champions, at an impromptu press conference in the Pack's Hotel Pfister headquarters here Friday afternoon, thus created something of a stir among the visiting press corps.

"The Packers," declared Lombardi, in a voluble and expansive mood as he awaited today's Western Conference showdown against the Los Angeles Rams at County Stadium "are the club for the future. We have 17 or 18 players now that form the best nucleus we have had since I joined the team."

This, obviously, was no idle boast. Lombardi, who had called the press conference unexpectedly, is not one to say such things lightly. Yet it came from a man whose 1961 and '62 Packer teams, winners of successive NFL titles in highly impressive fashion, have been ranked among the best ever assembled.

Elaborating on his declaration, the Packer major-domo said, "I feel our young quarterback (Don Horn) will be the equal of any we now have and probably better. He has the quick release you can't teach a passer, and he has the discipline a quarterback needs."

Lombardi also reported that he quoted to his players from St. Paul epistles in addressing them during Friday's squad meeting.

He said, "I told them, remember the words of St. Paul. 'Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize. So run, that ye may obtain.' "

Lombardi's coaching counterpart, the Rams' sauve George Allen, frankly admitted his team had been tailored for today.

Allen, holding forth in a press conference at the Milwaukee Inn, said his team was built for one year and proceeded to name the substantial collection of veterans he had acquired for draft choices.

The most notable was Roger Brown, the mountainous defensive tackle received in a trade with the Detroit Lions.

"The way he is playing," Allen said, "he'll be good for four or five more years if he keeps his weight down.

Summing up his philosophy, the soft-spoken Ram headmaster asserted, "I would rather have a veteran than have to wait for a rookie to develop. We're not building. We're trying to win."

North Edges Patriots in Overtime Duel

only to have the Pats come back to lead by 30-29 at the half, now began its charge back as Rich Peterson hit a driving layup with 3:41 remaining in the fourth quarter to make it 64-58.

Mark Hildebrand, North's 6-5 center and the game's top scorer with 23 points, hit two free throws and Pat Matzdorf, a jumping-jack forward, connected on a short goal, 66-62.

The Raiders finally caught up at 68-all with 1:48 showing, as burly Mike Krueger canned a short shot underneath. Bob Meyer swished two free throws to make it a 2-point lead for East, but Peterson came right back down the court to can a twisting jumper from the key.

Hildebrand got an easy one underneath with 1:06 left, but then Tom Jones matched it with a rebound goal to tie it at 72-72. East managed to get the ball back after Matzdorf missed, and the Pats worked to Jones. His try for the winning points bounced off the rim and an East tip also failed as the horn sounded.

Jones, who was out-muscled in the first half, came back to tally 21 points for the Pats, getting 18 in the second half. The big 6-5 junior was boxed in well in the first two segments, but North concentrated on defensing him less in the second half and paid the penalty.

Reichelt and Stach shared runner-up honors with 14 apiece for East. Matzdorf backed Hildebrand's effort with 16 points and Pragalz and Krueger added 12 and 11, resly.

LaCrosse Names Terry Frosh Grid Coach

LA CROSSE (AP) — William Terry, whose Westby High School football teams have been Scenic Central conference champions for five of the last seven years, will become freshman football coach at La Crosse State University Jan. 29.

Terry will succeed Dr. Robert W. Batchelder, who leaves the post after 12 years to devote more time to his duties as chairman of the department of physical education.

6 Raiders Picked on AFL All-Star Team

By HAL BOCK

NEW YORK (AP) — Six members of Oakland's Western Division champions dominate the American Football League All Star team selected for The Associated Press by a panel of 27 sports writers and broadcasters from across the country and released today.

The Raiders' balance was demonstrated in the voting by three-man committees from each of the AFL's nine cities with three Oakland players named to the offensive team and three to the defensive squad.

Heading the Oakland contingent is quarterback Daryle Lamonica, who has piloted the Raiders to their first divisional crown and leads the league in passing. He has thrown 29 touchdown passes, tops in the league.

Joining Lamonica on the offensive squad from Oakland are tight end Billy Cannon, who switched from running back two years ago and developed into a top pass catcher this season, and Jim Otto, a heavy choice at center.

Nance and Garrett

In the backfield with Lamonica are Boston's muscular Jim Nance, who rushed for more than 1,000 yards for the second straight season, and Kansas City's evasive Mike Garrett at the running backs.

Fleet Lance Alworth of San Diego was a nearly unanimous choice at flanker and George Sauer of New York, the AFL's top pass catcher, won the split end job. Nance and Alworth are repeaters from last year

Up front on the offensive unit, Kansas City's Jim Tyrer and San Diego's Ron Mix, both repeaters, are the tackles, with San Diego's Walt Sweeney and Houston's Bob Talamini nailing down the guard spots.

Defensively, Oakland, Houston and Kansas City dominated the voting with three berths each.

Selected from the Raiders were mammouth Ben Davidson, a 6-foot-7 defensive end, tackle Tom Keating and corner back Kent McCloughan.

Houston placed corner linebacker George Webster, the only rookie to make the team, defensive end Pat Holmes, and corner back Miller Farr, who returned three of his eight interceptions for touchdowns.

Picked from Kansas City were tackle Buck Buchanan, a massive 6-7, 287 pounds, linebacker Bobby Bell and safety Johnny Robinson.

Nick Buoniconti, Boston's middle linebacker, and Buffalo safety George Saimes are the other defensive picks.

Buchanan, Buoniconti, Bell, Robinson and McCloughan all are repeaters from last year's defensive team.

It's the same old device. But it still works. And the Boston Celtics are once again one-half game in front of Philadelphia in the Eastern Division standings of the National Basketball Association.

"There's no trick to it." Philadelphia coach Alex Hannum once said of the Celtics' favorite gambit. "They just run your legs off and shoot your eyes out."

That was the formula Friday night, the Celtics putting together one of their patented scoring bursts to wipe out a 14-point deficit and storm to a 120-117 victory over Cincinnati. It was Boston's sixth straight victory.

Baltimore whipped Chicago 117-112, Seattle topped New York 120-108, Los Angeles drubbed Detroit 133-105, and San Francisco edged San Diego 103-97 in other NBA action. Anaheim nipped Denver 108-102 in the only American Basketball Association game.

Boston, now 24-7 and one-half game ahead of idle Philadelphia, trailed Cincinnati 62-52 at halftime and 66-52 in the opening moments of the third period.

Score 41 Points

But they reeled off 41 points in a third-period explosion and took it going away. They hit 18 of 27 shots from the field in the big third period, John Havlicek scoring 15 points and Sam Jones 10.

Havlicek had 27 points for the night, Jones 20 and Bailey Howell 24 for the Celtics. Oscar Robertson of the Royals led with 36.

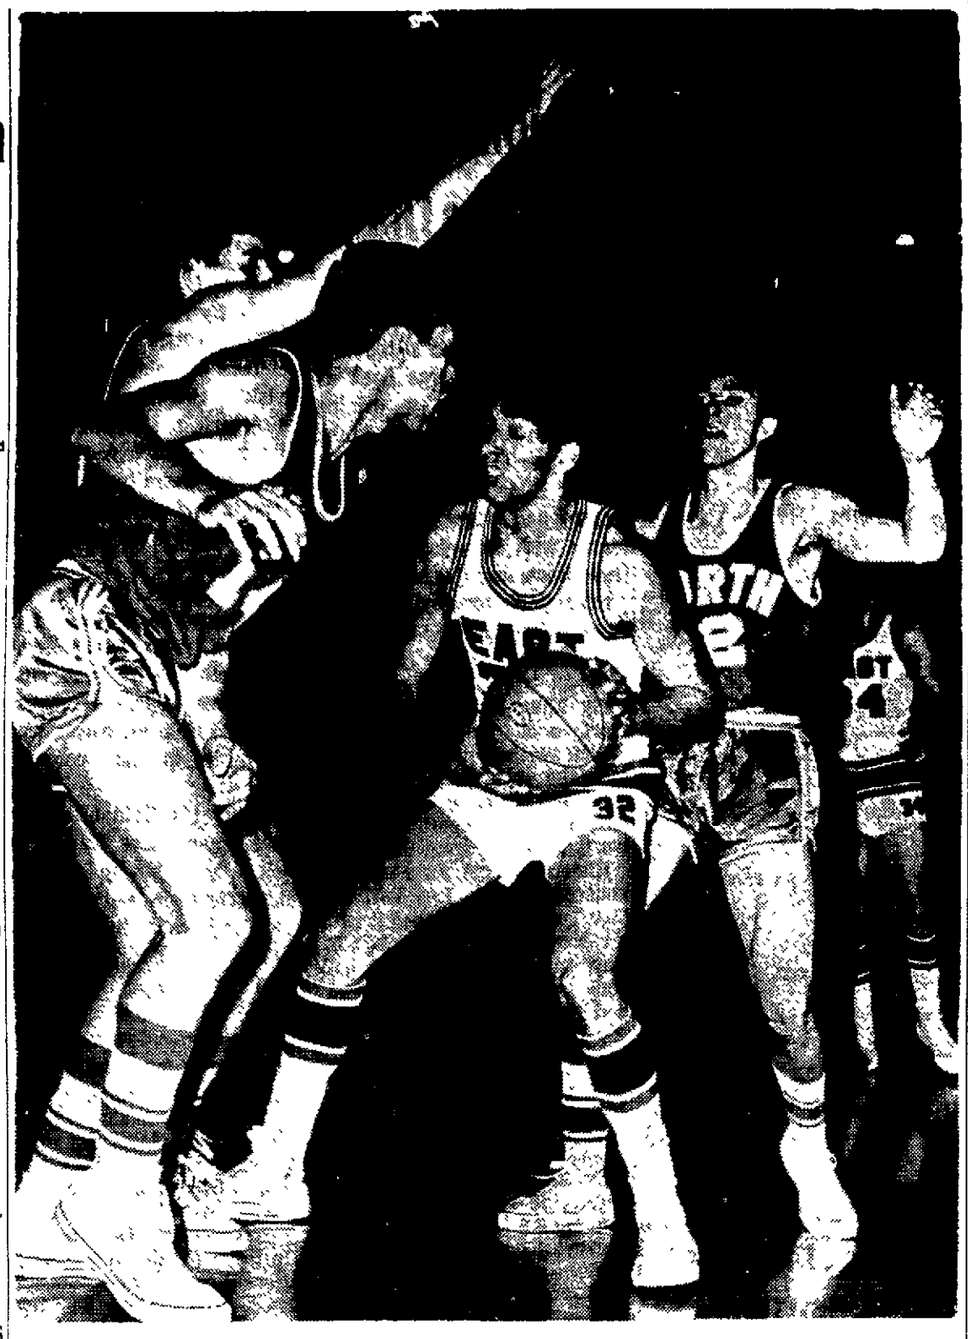

Rookie Earl Monroe scored a career high 33 points for Baltimore, which extended its winning string to three straight. Chicago pulled to within two points, 104-102 with three minutes left, but Stan McKenzie hit seven straight Baltimore points to quell the rally. McCoy McLemore led the Bulls with 28 points.

Rookie Al Tucker scored 31 points and Bob Rule, another rookie, poured in 20 and grabbed 27 rebounds to pace the Seattle victory. Dick Barnett topped New York with 20.

Elgin Baylor scored 25, Archie Clark 23 and Jerry West 21 for Los Angeles which opened up a 31-14 lead and coasted home. Len Chappell, who hit 11 of 12 field goal attempts, led Detroit with 28 points.

Some great defensive play by Al Attles helped San Francisco pull away from San Diego in the last two minutes. Rudy LaRusso led the winning Warriors with 26 points. Rookie John Block got 24 for the Rockets.

Bob Bedell scored 11 of his 15 points and John Fairchild got all of his eight in the fourth quarter, leading Anaheim to victory Steve Chubin scored 22 and Larry Bunce 21 for the winners. Larry Jones scored 27 and Wayne Hightower, who sat out the first half, 24 for Denver.

Jets' Owner Asks Lie Detector Tests in Video Tape Hassle

NEW YORK (AP) — The American Football League has closed the book on last weekend's celebrated Houston Video Tape Caper but Sonny Werblin, the New York Jets' angry owner, wants a polygraph rerun.

"I am demanding a lie detector test—I am not content with just an investigation," Werblin said Thursday after AFL President Milt Woodard cleared the Oilers of the Jets' charge that they used television tapes for scouting purposes, in violation of league by-laws, during their game against San Diego last Saturday.

Werblin, whose club lost to Oakland Sunday and dropped one game behind Houston in the Eastern Division race, watched the telecast of the Oilers' 24-17 victory over the Chargers at his New York home.

After hearing TV announcer Curt Gowday remark that Houston coaches in an adjoining booth were rerunning plays and sending them to the Oilers' bench, Werblin telephoned AFL officials at Houston and demanded an investigation.

Later in the telecast, Gowdy apologized for his video tape comments and said the only activity being taped was the halftime band show.

In exonerating the Oilers Thursday, Woodard said he had sworn statements from the Houston coaches and other staff members that the tape was used only for recording the halftime program. Woodard said Mel Hein, the AFL supervisor of officials, had investigated the Jets' allegations and found no evidence that Houston scouts used the electronic equipment for scouting purposes.

Hein's investigation, however, failed to satisfy Werblin, who countered by calling for polygraph tests.

"If any coach is found lying in this matter," the Jets' owner said, "I want him expelled from professional football."

Ira Hutchinson Replaces Stumpf

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago White Sox Friday named Ira Hutchinson, former major league pitcher, to succeed Eddie Stumpf, 74, retiring Jan. 1 as director of advertising and special groups.

Hutchinson, managing in the White Sox farm system since 1951, pitched for the White Sox, Boston Braves, Brooklyn Dodgers and St. Louis Cardinals.

Judge Rules That Orange Bowl Classic Blackout Will Hold

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A circuit judge upheld Friday the 150-mile television blackout on the Orange Bowl football game.

Circuit 8 Judge Jack Falk upheld the Orange Bowl Committee after a hearing that lasted until after 8 p.m.

A lawsuit filed by Miami Beach attorney Ellis Rubin had sought an injunction against NBC, demanding that the game be broadcast locally at the same time it is seen nationally.

Tennessee meets Oklahoma in the Orange Bowl at 8 p.m., Jan. 1. The game has been sold out for weeks.

Denmark '5' Wins Over Stockbridge

DENMARK — After taking a 19-15 lead at the closing of the initial stanza the Vikings of Denmark never were headed, in their non-conference game against Stockbridge Friday evening, as they coasted to a 83-74 win.

It was a game where the importance of the free throw line was properly demonstrated as the Vikings capitalized on 27 of 34 from the charity stripe while the Indians were able to hit on only 15 of 26 attempts. Denmark had a 29-28 basket edge.

John Roberts of Denmark paced all scorers with 23 points. Tom Head led the losers with 19.

Horse Dies at 143 In 'People' Time

JACKSBORO, Tex. (AP) — Pony Boy, 47-year-old half Shetland, and believed to be one of the oldest horses in the world, is dead.

Special feed rations mixed by B. L. Martin had kept the old horse alive the past 10 years. Billy Craft, Pony Boy's owner, buried him Thursday under a shade tree where the animal liked to stand. He died Wednesday.

Craft bought the horse in 1948 for his children.

A horse in Italy and one nursed by a circus both lived to be 44 years of age. By human standards, Pony Boy would have been 143 years old, Craft said.

DEAR JOHN
You promised that AFTER the holidays you would look at the home on 505 Henry Street, Neenah with me. It has everything we want . .3 bedrooms, formal dining room, vestibule entry, and even a fireplace. . .and it's in tip-top condition (you know how you hate to be fixing things all the time) Best of all, John, it's only $14,500 remember, you promised!
Love,
Mary

DEAR MARY
I'll take you over there right away but first I have a home I want you to look at. . .951 West Caroline Street. You know how we never have storage space for everything. . .well, this home has a large walk-in storage closet upstairs. Perfect for the Christmas decorations. 3 bedrooms, built-ins $18,500

'Love' Key Word In Church Appeal

By GODFREY ANDERSON
Associated Press Writer

LONDON (AP) — London's Roman Catholic Enquiry Center, after 14 years of angling for Protestants, has changed its tactics to aim for the millions in swinging Britain who profess no religion at all.

It still uses mass advertising techniques to put across its message. And the message is fundamentally the same. But Biblical texts and Gothic lettering are strictly out. Today's message is in the language of today.

Catholic Enquiry Center advertisements, shining amidst sex and violence from pages in the popular newspapers, used to show a priest holding aloft a chalice. Readers were asked if they knew what happened at a Catholic Mass.

Word Is Love

Now instead the advertisement is topped with a single word in heavy type. The word is love.

"The story of Christ is a love story," the hippies and flower children are told "And Christianity is the religion of love. We all want to love and to be loved, to understand and to be understood."

The message invites those who want to bring happiness and purpose into their lives to write for booklets which tell clearly and frankly about the Catholic faith.

As in the old advertisements, discretion is assured. The free booklets will be sent at regular intervals "in a plain sealed cover" and "no one will call on you."

New Approach

Another of the new advertisements takes this form:

"Born in poverty. Lived only 33 years. Spent most of his life in obscurity. Never wrote a book. Never had any position in public life. Was crucified with two thieves, and yet 2,000 years later, more than 950 million people follow Him."

The Catholic Enquiry Center has been operating from an anonymous-looking building in the fashionable suburb of Hampstead since 1954. It sends out its plain-wrapped booklets to about 25,000 people each year, about 1,000 of whom later write to say they have been received into the Church.

A sample survey has shown that 46 per cent of those answering the center's advertisements are between the ages of 18 and 25. This was a major factor in causing the center to update its approach.

Booklets Revised

The original set of 21 booklets, one sent by mail each week, was revised and condensed to 11.

"There seems to be a suspicion of all organized religion among the young," said the Rev. James O'Brien, the young priest who took over direction of the center in November. "There is a much greater questioning about everything. And there is more uncertainty than ever before. We have had the leaflets made more scriptural and ecumenical. In fact, we are in a state of continual experimentation."

The real problem, said Father O'Brien, was to make Catholicism intelligible to people who had little or no acquaintance with the Christian faith at all—its message or its language.

Contact Cards

Another means of approach used by the center is through contact cards left around in Roman Catholic churches or wherever else they might catch an interested eye. Catholics are urged to give the card to a non-Catholic friend, but—discretion again—not to drop it through his mailbox.

If a Catholic wants the booklets for himself he has to pay about $1 for what non-Catholics get free.

The Rev. Kevin O'Brien, superior of the Catholic Missionary Society in London and director of the center until handing over to his namesake last month, regrets the passing of the radio pirate stations. He called them "good friends"

Pirate Stations

Radio Caroline and Radio London broadcast pop music interspersed with advertising to the swinging set all day until banned for illegal operation by the government.

"They served us well and reached an audience even the newspapers do not seem to touch," said Father O'Brien. "Some day we hope they will come back to us and we can advertise on them again."

The Enquiry Center operates on an annual budget of about $96,000, which is mostly raised through 3,500 promoters, each of whom undertakes to raise about 24 cents a month from an estimated 50,000 sponsors. Donations and covenants bring in the rest.

Today in History

Today is Saturday, Dec. 23, the 357th day of 1967. There are eight days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1783, George Washington resigned as Army commander-in-chief and retired to his home at Mount Vernon in Virginia.

On this date:

In 1805, the Mormon leader, Joseph Smith, was born in Sharon, Vt.

In 1940, Britain's Prime Minister Winston S. Churchill urged the Italians to rid themselves of the dictator, Benito Mussolini.

In 1941, Churchill, a wartime visitor to Washington, was asked how long it would take to defeat the Axis. He replied: "If we manage it well, it will take only half as long as if we manage it badly."

Also in 1941 Wake Island fell to the Japanese.

In 1945, a Big Three meeting took place in Moscow. Taking part were Soviet Premier Joseph Stalin, U.S. Secretary of State James Byrnes and British Foreign Minister Ernest Bevin.

In 1962 Cuban war prisoners who had been ransomed from the Castro government began arriving in Miami.

Ten years ago — The first nuclear submarine produced by assembly-line methods, the "Skate," was launched at Groton, Conn.

Five years ago — Britain announced it would build a squadron of submarines which would be equipped with U.S. "Polaris" missiles.

Restrictions Would be Eased

State Birth Control Bill Has Been Referred to Interim Group

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

MADISON — After nearly a year of uncertain and intermittent discussion and deliberation, the issue of relaxing the state's laws on birth control has been shunted to an interim legislative group for further review and additional evidence of public opinion on the sensitive topic.

Under the terms of the bill offered to the Legislature by the Wisconsin Citizens for Family Planning, persons over age of 18 or mothers would be legally entitled to obtain contraceptives from pharmacists or doctors. The prohibition against the commercial advertising of birth control devices would remain unchanged, but the legislation also proposed that social welfare workers could provide family planning assistance to welfare recipients.

When the measure was originally introduced, after intensive preparatory campaign work by the sponsoring organization, some legislators thought it likely to pass.

Chief Backer

Assemblyman Harvey Gee of Wisconsin Rapids, chairman of the Assembly welfare committee which considered the bill, was one of its chief backers and was hopeful of passage.

But when the proposal became general public knowledge, partly as a result of publicity arranged by the sponsoring Family Planning committee, legislators heard from opponents. A Milwaukee group entitled Reverence for Life, headed by Mrs. David Mogilka, wife of a lawyer, inspired considerable opposition to counter the work of Mrs. Walter Raushenbush, wife of a University of Wisconsin law professor, who is a leader of the sponsoring organization.

While the Legislature did not actually complete action on a directive to the Joint Legislative Council to pursue studies of the issue during the next year, the council is expected at its meeting here on Jan. 13 to make such arrangements on its own initiative.

Citizen Adviser

The study assignment probably will be given to the two standing committees on welfare of the two houses, headed by Gee and Sen. Alex Meunier of Sturgeon Bay, respectively, and a council spokesman said the appointment of a group of private citizen advisors also is likely.

Because the legislative leadership does not intend to reconvene the 1967 Legislature, the issue probably won't be resolved until the 1969 Legislature, following the 1968 elections. Some persons have expressed apprehension that the controversial bill may figure in the election campaign arguments next summer and fall.

Hollandtown Businessman Dies Friday

Implement Dealer Was on Way Home From Janesville

CHILTON — Norbert A. Vanderloop, 53, Dundas Road, Hollandtown, was pronounced dead on arrival at Calumet County Hospital, Chilton, after collapsing in Brothertown about 9:30 p.m. Friday.

Vanderloop, a farm implement dealer near Dundas, was returning home from Janesville when he stopped to make a phone call. He collapsed before reaching the phone.

The sheriff's department was called and Vanderloop was taken to the hospital. Calumet County Coroner Leroy Hughes said the man, who reportedly had a history of coronary trouble, died of a coronary occlusion. Hughes said there was a strong odor of diesel fuel on Vanderloop and in the cab of his flat bottom truck which may have contributed to the coronary by cutting oxygen intake and causing labored breathing. Blood tests are being made to confirm this.

Vanderloop is survived by his widow, one daughter, five sons, 11 grandchildren, three brothers and eight sisters.

Dentist Ready for Next Halloween

GARDNER, Mass. (AP) — There's a dentist in Gardner who can hardly wait for Halloween.

Dr. Charles E. Martel figured that most of the youngsters in his neighborhood probably would eat much more candy than was good for them, so last year he ordered a large supply of toothbrushes to give to the trick-or-treaters arriving at his front door.

The shipment was too late for Halloween of 1967, but on Nov. 1, 1968 those small fry will be able to brush those potential cavities away.

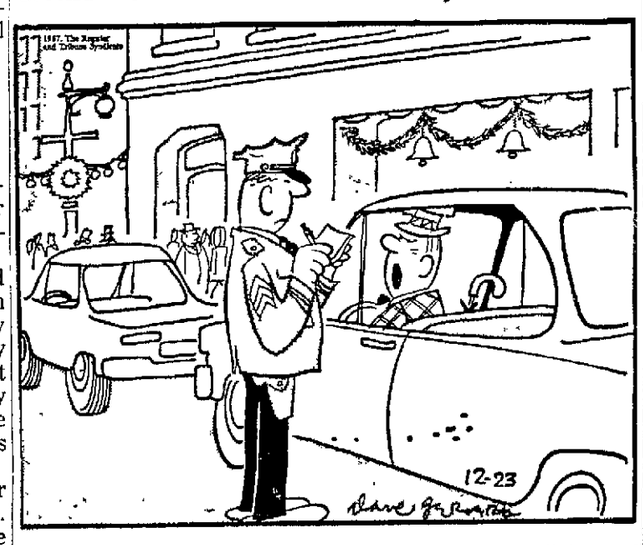

5 Children Killed In Car-Train Crash

FOYIL, Okla. (AP) — Six children packed themselves into the cab of Mrs. Vonnie Culver's pickup truck for a ride home from school Thursday afternoon. A little while later the pickup truck was hit by a freight train at a street crossing.

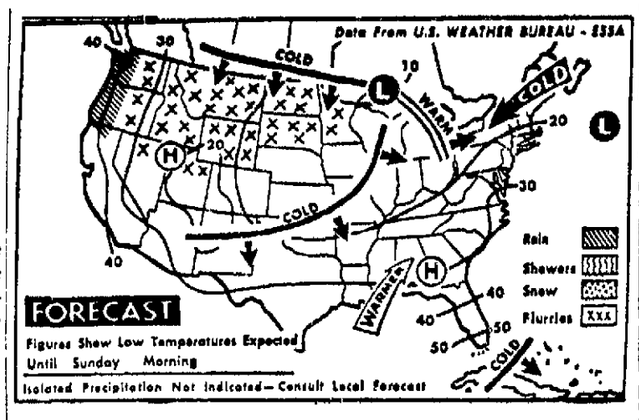

Five of the children were killed. Mrs. Culver was critically injured. A sixth child was hospitalized.

Highway Patrol Trooper Don Bliaard said Mrs. Culver apparently pulled onto the railroad crossing before she saw the train.

CITIZEN SMITH — By Dave Gerard

"And remember, I want no sensational pre-trial publicity and no TV cameras in the courtroom!"

Snow Flurries are Forecast for tonight in a broad, northern belt stretching from Minnesota through the Dakotas and into Idaho. It will rain along the northern Pacific coast. Colder weather is due over the eastern third of the nation, while the Midwest and Southwest can expect moderate temperatures. (AP Wirephoto Map)

Masses, Services Set

Kaukauna Rites Note Festival of Christmas

KAUKAUNA — Special services are scheduled at city churches to commemorate Christmas, with the three Catholic parishes scheduling midnight masses.

St. Mary Catholic Church will start the holy day at 11:15 p.m. Sunday with the singing of hymns and carols by the adult choir.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Peter Salm, pastor, will deliver his Christmas homily at 11:30, followed by adoration at the crib and a midnight high mass. Masses on Christmas day will be at 5, 7, 8:30, 10 and 11:30 a.m.

Sergeant Tells World of Love For Wife, Son

OTSEGO, Mich. (AP) — Air Force Sgt. William Schearer doesn't mind hanging his heart on his sleeve, especially when it's Christmas. He's stationed at Phu-Cat Airbase in Vietnam and his wife and son are in this small western Michigan community.

When Schearer's wife opened a recent edition of the weekly Otsego Union newspaper, she saw this advertisement.

"To my loving wife, Peggy, and son, Brian. During this very special and joyous holiday season, my thoughts for you spanned the many thousands of miles that separate us.

"This year as a special gift, I give you a heart filled with love, a gift to last through the years. May God bless you and keep you safe for me. A very Merry Christmas and a very Happy New Year.

"All my love, Bill."

Fleeing Thieves Scatter Diamonds

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A pair of thieves scattered 32 diamond rings worth $10,000 over crowded Market Street recently in a wild chase among Christmas shoppers.

Police said the two had asked to see a tray of the gems at the Crescent Jewelry Co. Then they grabbed it and ran. As they knocked down several shoppers while fleeing, the tray was pitched into the thick crowd.

The management said 95 per cent of the rings were recovered. The robbers escaped in the confusion.

Police Recover Gift Stolen From Station

PLANTATION, Fla. (AP) — An electric shoe-shine kit, donated to the police department for Christmas, was recovered about 12 hours after police said it was swiped from under the station house Christmas tree.

Army Pvt. Robert Hogan of Pompano Beach and Ft. Benning, Ga., a visitor to the police station, posted $500 bond Thursday after he was charged with the theft.

To Your Good Health

Regard Doctor as Your Friend, Don't Freeze!

BY JOSEPH MOLNER, M. D.

Dear Dr. Molner: I am a girl, 15, and recently discovered that I am a diabetic. My problem is that every time I go see my doctor I freeze up and can't talk to him.

I like him very much, but he thinks I don't like him, and I know he is a well respected physician. I would like to tell him my problems, but I need some advice on how to do it. — R.M.K.

You aren't the only one who freezes up. Lots of people do until they get used to regarding the doctor as a friend.

You can just keep going to him until you unfreeze.

Or you can just blurt it out. Tell him you freeze, and you really like him but don't sound like it.

Or you might even clip out this column and say, "This is the trouble with me." And I think you'll find that everything unfreezes easily.

Diabetes, of course, is a disease which you will have all your life, so it is important for you to be able to ask the questions that are puzzling you.

I've seen a lot of youngsters like you, and I know some of the questions they ask. If they need insulin (young diabetics usually do) they want to know exactly how to take the insulin, how to take care of the syringe, whether to keep the insulin in the refrigerator.

They want to know what to say when other youngsters offer them candy that has to be refused, or what to order instead if the others are having ice cream or hamburgers, and the diabetic diet doesn't allow it.

Or how they can tell if they've been eating too much, and how often to test themselves for sugar. Oh, there are lots of questions. How much exercise? What if you miss a meal? And plenty of others, and to live a healthy, happy life in spite of diabetes, you have to know the answers.

There are answers to all your questions. Don't swamp your doctor with too many questions at once. You'll get so much information at once that you probably can't absorb it all.

But show him this column next time you see him, and have clearly in mind (or even noted on paper) the two or three questions you need the answers to now.

You'll be seeing him regularly in the future, and you can take up other problems when or if they crop up.

Dear Dr. Molner: As I write this letter, my 3½-year-old son is in the hospital from poisoning. He ate an almost full bottle of baby-size aspirins. Two mornings ago he got out of his room, went downstairs, got the bottle out of the kitchen cabinet and ate them.

He is going to be all right, but he is a pretty sick little boy. I hope people reading this will learn a lesson that I learned the hard way. Please put all medicines in the safest place possible. A child's curiosity is amazing. Parents should be aware of this. I know I wasn't but I am now. — Mrs. W.M.

That warning speaks for itself.

Dear Dr. Molner: What advice would you give a young couple who are anticipating marriage and the mother of the girl is an epileptic? Isn't epilepsy hereditary or isn't there a weakness for it? — M.F.

Only in some cases is there an inherited factor. In many there is none at all. Anyway, the young man wants to marry the girl, not the mother, and the girl doesn't have epilepsy so I'd just wish the young couple happiness.

Judge Puts Hortonville Youth On Probation After Burglaries

"You're on the road to the reformatory at Green Bay, without any detours," Outagamie County Judge Gustave J. Keller warned an 18-year-old Hortonville youth Friday after the youth was found guilty of taking part in four burglaries late in October and early last month.

Judge Keller placed Donald L. Taylor, Main Street, on probation to the State Department of Health and Social Services for three years after the youth, through his court-appointed attorney, pleaded no contest.

Joseph Vanden Oever, Outagamie County sheriff's investigator, said Taylor was involved with Gerald Verhagen of rural Appleton in burglarizing the Paradise Club, Appleton Auto Wrecking Co., 41 Bowl and United Archery Lanes between Oct. 21 and Nov. 3.

Verhagen and Taylor were taken into custody early the morning of Nov. 3, shortly after the Appleton Auto Wrecking Co. burglary, when they were found sleeping in their car west of the city.

As conditions of his probation, Taylor will have to pay half of the damage inflicted on the business places and half of the replacement cost of stolen property or money not recovered, and he must repay the county for the cost of his appointed attorney.

Verhagen earlier was placed on two years probation.

Appleton Men Promoted at Power Firm

Wisconsin Michigan Names Three to Engineer Posts

They are J. L. Ellefson, 631 S. Christine St.; Otto R. Boll, 1721 S. Sanders St.; and Jarvis D. Girard, 412 E. Hoover Ave.

Ellefson was named to a newly created position, manager of operations; Boll was appointed manager of engineering, and Girard was promoted to assistant manager of engineering.

Ellefson, 37, is responsible for the company's electric operations. He served in the Air Force from 1951-55 and received an electrical engineering degree from the University of Wisconsin at Madison in 1958 when he joined Wisconsin Michigan as a senior engineer. He was promoted to assistant chief engineer in 1964.

Ellefson

Boll Girard

Engineering Societies

He is a member of two honorary engineering societies Tau Beta Pi and Eta Kappa Nu; the Electrical and Electronics Engineers, and was chairman of the Northeastern Wisconsin District in 1964-65.

Ellefson is president-elect of the Appleton chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America. He is also a member of the North Side Kiwanis Club.

Boll started with Wisconsin Michigan in 1940 as a groundman in the line department in Iron Mountain, Mich. and a year later joined the engineering department as a junior engineer.

After serving in the Army Signal Corps from 1942 to 1946, Boll returned to Iron Mountain and was transferred to Appleton in 1948 where he was named senior engineer. He subsequently was promoted to supervisor of electrical engineering and chief engineer.

Boll has bachelor and master's degrees in electrical engineering from the University of Michigan and is a member of the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers, National Society of Professional Engineers.

He represents the company on the Interconnected System Group, northwest regional committee. Boll is a member of the Kiwanis Club of Greater Appleton.

Girard, 33, an electrical engineering graduate of the University of Minnesota, joined Wisconsin Michigan in 1960 as a senior engineer and was promoted to supervisor of transmission and substation engineering last summer. He is a member of the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers

Greentree Man Celebrates 98th Birthday Today

CLINTONVILLE—Mrs. Louise Torkelson, a resident at Greentree Nursing Hospital for the past 19 months, is 98 years old today.

Members of her family, Greentree residents and guests enjoyed a huge decorated birthday cake at noon.

Mrs. Torkelson was born Dec. 23, 1869 at Scandinavia and spent her life in the area. For many years, she lived with her daughter, Mrs. Lillian Carlson, Waupaca.

In addition to her daughter, Mrs. Torkelson has two sons, Arthur, Fort Dodge, Ia., and Kenneth, Antioch, Ill., two grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Two Motorists Forfeit Fines

WAUPACA — Two forfeitures totaling $75 were made in Municipal Justice Court Friday by out-of-county motorists charged with carrying alcoholic beverages with minors present in the cars they were driving.

Harold E McQueen, 20, Milwaukee, forfeited $25 on a county police charge of having intoxicants in a vehicle with minors in it. The arrest was made Dec. 19.

Daniel E. Schutte, 18, route 1, Nashotah, forfeited $50 on a county police charge of transporting beer with minors present. Schutte was arrested Nov. 25.

Five Fleeing Youths Sought in Apparent School Fire Attempt

A night janitor at Huntley Elementary School, 2224 N. Ullman S., Appleton discovered Wednesday evening that five youths whom he chased away from near the school apparently were about to set fire to fluid-soaked lumber.

Police were notified of the incident early Thursday afternoon. The janitor said he heard noises outside the main entrance to the school, and upon checking, observed five youngsters fleeing.

He then discovered several small scraps of lumber soaked with charcoal lighter fluid, alongside the building. Police are continuing their investigation.

First Award of Its Kind

Dr. Carlson Honored By County Physicians

Dr. Guy Carlson, who has served the Appleton community as a physician for more than 40 years was honored recently by the Outagamie County Medical Society.

A silver pitcher with the inscription, "We thank you, Guy, for your many years of service and your tireless efforts on behalf of our society and the practice of medicine," was presented to the doctor by Dr. James Gmeiner, society president at the annual meeting Dec. 14. He is the first to receive such an honor.

The physician, who has held all offices of the county medical society, also was a delegate to the State Medical Society for many years, and served on its council. For the past 20 years he has served on the commission of Wisconsin Physicians Service—Blue Shield of the state medical society.

He is a member of the American College of Physicians, the American Board of Internal Medicine and the American Rheumatism Association. He is on the staff of Appleton Memorial and St. Elizabeth Hospitals and on the courtesy staff of Theda Clark Hospital, Neenah.

Community Efforts

On the community level, he has served on the board of the Y.M.C.A., the board of directors of Outagamie County chapter of the American Red Cross, the board of the Visiting Nurses Association, and has been active in the tuberculosis testing in the schools for 25 years. He also served as a medical examiner for the Selective Service System for 25 years.

A native of South Dakota, Dr. Carlson received his bachelor of arts degree from the University of South Dakota in 1919 and his doctor's degree in medicine from Rush Medical College, Chicago, in 1921.

After his internship at St. Luke's Hospital in Chicago, the doctor opened his private practice in Appleton in 1923. In 1929 and 1930 he did post-graduate work at the University of Vienna in Austria and at the University of London, England, the latter including studies under Dr. Warren Crowe on arthritis. Since that time he has taken other post-graduate work at medical centers in this country.

'Operation Look Homeward'

Fox Cities Paper Firms Set Student Program

Fox Cities paper companies again expect a large turnout for "Operation Look Homeward", their Christmastime open-house program for vacationing college students.

The event, fast becoming a holiday tradition for this area, will begin at 9 a.m. Wednesday at Lou Calder Memorial Hall, Institute of Paper Chemistry.

Many registrations already have been received. Other students desiring to attend may notify the Wisconsin Paper Industry Information Service, 104 North Commercial St., Neenah.

Chairman for this year's event is Richard D. Widmann, corporate personnel director, Menasha Corp., Neenah.

"Operation Look Homeward," Widmann said, "is designed to acquaint our home-town students with the many papermaking career possibilities in the Fox Cities.

"Last year's program was greeted enthusiastically by those who turned out," Widmann said. "They found opportunity not only for a good exposure to the industry, but for career counseling generally."

"Also, it provides an excellent chance for students to get together with our college men and women during the holidays," he added.

Favors will be distributed and refreshments served at the Institute program, which lasts until noon. Thereafter, students may arrange visits to individual paper companies.

Fox Cities firms cooperating in the program are American Can Co., Appleton Coated Paper Co., Bergstrom Paper Co., Fox River Paper Corp., Kimberly-Clark Corp., Menasha Corp., Riverside Paper Corp., Thilmany Pulp and Paper Co., Wisconsin Tissue Mills, and The Institute of Paper Chemistry.

Gust Schulz of Clintonville Has 91st Birthday

CLINTONVILLE — Gust Schulz, 183 N. Main St., observed his 91st birthday Thursday.

On Nov. 19, Mr. and Mrs. Schulz observed their 65th wedding anniversary with a dinner and open house at the Veterans Memorial Building.

Schulz was born Dec. 21 in Germany and came to the United States with his parents and a brother when he was four years old. He has lived in this area since that time.

Active and in good health, Schulz "has retired but never stopped working."

Clintonville Girl Hurt in Mishap

CLINTONVILLE—Debra Hall, 17, 145 Ninth St., complained of neck injuries after the car, driven by her father, Ralph A. Hall, 63, was struck in the rear by a school bus about 4 p.m. Thursday on S. Main Street.

According to police, Hall was stopped for a car in front of him when the school bus, driven by Erwin A. Graper, 46, 145 Eighth St., struck it. The streets were icy and snowy at the time. Damage to the car was estimated at more than $200. There was no damage to the bus.

Kimberly Churches Announce Schedule of Christmas Services

A children's service featuring youngsters from the Christian Day School will be held at 6:30 p.m. Sunday at Mount Calvary Lutheran Church with the theme "O Come Let Us Adore Him." The Rev. Frederic Kosanke, pastor, will conduct a worship service at 9 a.m. Christmas day.

Chilton Beaten In Last Seconds

New Holstein '5' Posts 71-69 Win In EWC Contest

CHILTON — With six seconds left in the game, New Holstein's John Kramer hit a layup and a free throw to give the Huskies a 71-69 victory over Chilton Friday night.

New Holstein, which led 19-9 at one point in the first period, finished the initial quarter of the Eastern Wisconsin Conference game with a 21-16 lead. Chilton came back in the second stanza and outscored the Huskies, 15-7, to take a 31-28 halftime lead.

The visitors rebounded into the lead in the third period and took a 48-43 edge going into the final segment of play.

Chilton rallied in the last period and with about four minutes left in the game the Tigers held a 59-56 lead.

The score was tied three times in the final period, the last time being at 65-all with about two and a half minutes left. The Huskies sank a free throw and then matched baskets with the Tigers for a 68-67 lead.

Chilton managed to go ahead once more before Kramer's final points as Tom Schwarz hit two charity tosses for the Tigers and garnered a 69-68 lead.

Christmas Folk Festival Planned At Little Chute

LITTLE CHUTE — A Christmas folk festival will be presented by students at St. John Grade School at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in the grade school gym.

The school orchestra, consisting of 30 violin, piano and organ students, will participate. Seventh graders, directed by Mrs. Walter Rennebohm, will narrate the origin of the traditional Christmas folk songs.

A film strip will provide words for the community caroling. This will be the third year the school orchestra has presented a Christmas program under the direction of Sister John Boxco.

Derrow Slams Two 600 Series

WITTENBERG — John Derrow slammed two 600 series within three nights during bowling competition this past week.

A 254 game highlighted a 641 series in Major League action Tuesday, while he topped that with a 258 singleton as part of a 659 series in the 800 League Thursday.

Neenah Man Chooses 15-Day Jail Sentence For Speeding Charge

NEENAH — David Maynard, 21, 1274 County Trunk U, Neenah, pleaded no contest to a charge of speeding 45 miles per hour in a 25 m.p.h. zone in Winnebago County Court Branch 3 Wednesday, and is serving a 15-day sentence instead of paying the $50 fine plus $4.50 in costs.

Judge James Sitter fined Rocklin Morris, 19, 342 Third St., Menasha, $200 plus $4.50 in costs after Morris pleaded guilty to a charge of disorderly conduct. Morris was arrested at Frank & Pat's Pizza Place on Dec. 15.

A charge against William Schmitz, 66, 1453 Harrison St., Neenah, of furnishing beer to minors at his home, was dismissed by Judge Sitter. The arrest was made on Sept. 5.

Store Burglary Suspect Held In Cincinnati

In Jewelry Theft; Charged With Role Fights Extradition

Harold B. Lutchins, 34, Cincinnati, whom police say is a prime suspect in the burglary last Sunday at Martin J. Hupka Jewelry Store, 336 W. College Ave., was taken into custody Friday by Cincinnati police.

Appleton Police Department detectives said the man was apprehended on a parole violation shortly after Dist. Atty. Nick F. Schaefer issued a criminal complaint and Judge Gustave J. Keller issued a burglary warrant for Lutchins.

Fight Extradition

Detectives said that Lutchins would be held in jail in Cincinnati, as a parole violator, until the warrant is received from Appleton. Lutchins reportedly already has indicated he will fight extradition. Authorities here said that extradition proceedings will be the next step in the case.

If he refuses to waive extradition, proceedings are started between the governors' offices in Wisconsin and Ohio.

Watches valued at about $5,000 were stolen from the downtown Appleton jewelry store during a daring noontime burglary last Sunday. A Combined Locks man who witnessed part of the burglary said there were two men involved.

2 Injured in Crash on 41

Two persons complained of back injuries after a line of traffic accident on U.S. 41 at Vandenbroek Road at 10 p.m Friday. Injured were Edward Cole, 40, Wabeno, driver of one car, and the passenger in his car, Sandra Cole, 22, also of Wabeno.

Their auto was struck from behind by a car driven by Jack Mayer, 24, 217 N. Durkee St., Appleton. Both vehicles were westbound on U.S. 41.

Kiwanis Round Table Slated at Little Chute

LITTLE CHUTE — The dinner meeting of the Kiwanis Club Tuesday has been cancelled because the regular meeting place will be closed, but a round table discussion will be held at the village hall at 6:30 p.m., according to George Vanderloop, publicity chairman.

Appleton Youth Admits Issuing Worthless Check

Vincent Freiburger, 18, 1808 W. Pine St., was placed on probation to the State Department of Health and Social Services for one year Friday after he pleaded guilty to an amended charge of issuing a worthless check.

Freiburger, a high school student, was arraigned Dec. 19 on a forgery charge, and an attorney was appointed for him Appleton police alleged that he issued a forged $20 check Nov 4 at The Gold Cushion, 519 W. College Ave.

However, the reduced charge was asked Friday by Dist. Atty. Nick F. Schaefer. As conditions of probation, Freiburger is to make restitution for the bad check and repay the county for the cost of his appointed attorney.

Dairy Makes Final Delivery In Menasha

Meadowview Closes Because of High Cost of Operation

MENASHA — One of the last independent dairies in the area made its last delivery Wednesday, and is closing its doors after 47 years of business in the Twin Cities.

Harvey Knorr, owner and manager of Meadowview Dairy Inc., 1292 Manitowoc Rd., said the shut-down was due to the high cost of maintaining a small dairy.

Knorr explained that labor costs have gone up and that small dairies cannot compete with store prices on a retail delivery basis.

The only remaining independent dairy in the Twin Cities area is Marten's Dairy Inc.

Morning Glory Dairy purchased the retail milk business from Galloway Company early this month, and Menasha's Gear Dairy Co. merged with Morning Glory last May.

Just 20 years ago, the Twin Cities had eight independent dairies. They included Eskdale Dairy, Murphy Dairy, Neenah Milk Products (Galloway) and Marten's, all in Neenah; and Roselawn, Gear, Meadowview and Home Dairies in Menasha.

Two of the three employes at Meadowview have joined the Borden operation in Appleton, and one has gone to Morning Glory.

Knorr's plans are indefinite, he said.

Brillion High Varsity Stops Alumni Quint

BRILLION — Brillion's Alumni jumped off to an early, 19-9 lead but eventually fell to the varsity, 78-62 Friday night.

After taking the lead, 19-9, the Alumni held on for a 19-14 lead at the end of the quarter as the varsity started to rally. Led by Ross Hansen, who had 15 points in the second period, the varsity took a 40-35 half-time lead.

The varsity continued to pour it on in the second half. Russ Rohrdanz led the Alumni with 28 points Hansen paced the winners with 33 markers, and Dick Klein added 13.

Given Stern Lecture

Men on Probation for Burglarizing College

Glen P. Behrendt, 22, Marinette, and Jon V. Laughlin, 22, 833 E. Washington St., Appleton, got a stern lecture and were placed on two years probation Friday afternoon after they pleaded no contest and were found guilty of burglarizing Outagamie County Teachers College early Thursday.

As conditions of their probation to the State Department of Health and Social Services, the two men must split the cost of repairing damage they did to the school building. It was estimated at $100.

Caught With Money

They appeared in court Thursday but their cases were continued to Friday to allow them both time to retain attorneys. Behrendt is a student at the college. Their attorneys waived preliminary hearings for the men, who were then bound over to the felony branch of Outagamie County Court.

Lt. Robert Main of the Kaukauna Police Department testified in court Friday that the men were apprehended behind the school by two patrolmen about 3 a.m. Thursday. They had a large amount of change in their possession, and an inventory showed that more than $160 was missing from an office, a juke box, and a soft drink vending machine. All of the stolen money was recovered, Main said.

According to Main, the men were caught after entering the school for the second time. They had stolen a large amount of money the first time Thursday morning, then went to Behrendt's apartment where they split the take. They returned to the school and broke open a juke box, then ransacked offices.

Main said the men were drinking in a tavern near the school before committing the offense.

Seymour Youth Killed When Car Hits Tree

Edward Everson, 18, Dead on Arrival At Hospital Friday

GREEN BAY — One rural Seymour youth is dead and another in critical condition this morning after a one-car accident late Friday night about eight miles northwest of here.

Dead is Edward Everson, route 3, Seymour. In critical condition is Edward Cheslock, 19, route 3, Seymour, who was in surgery this morning at St. Mary Hospital here.

Brown County sheriff's authorities said the pair were riding in a 1967 model vehicle which was found wrapped around a tree next to a Town of Pittsfield road about 11:45 p.m. Friday.

Also in the car was Ronald Matuszak, 19, route 3, Seymour, who also is in the hospital.

Not Questioned Yet

Authorities said they have not been able to determine who was driving the vehicle, since they have been unable to question either Cheslock or Matuszak.

Everson was dead on arrival at the hospital. Cheslock underwent emergency surgery. He sustained compound fractures of both legs, both ankles, right wrist and head cuts. Matuszak sustained internal injuries and head cuts.

The car, thought by authorities to have been driven by Everson, struck a tree after going out of control after crossing a railroad track. The driver's door slammed into the tree.

Matuszak was taken immediately to the hospital after authorities removed him from the wreckage by the vehicle's right side door. Everson and Cheslock were pinned in the car and removed with the aid of a wrecker.

Raises Death Toll

The death of Everson raised Wisconsin's highway fatality toll for 1967 to 1,107.

Also dead during the initial hours of the extended Christmas holiday was a 27-year-old Milwaukee man. The grim pace of death on the state's highways is running ahead of last year's, and the state may have a new record by Dec. 31 to succeed the all-time high of 1,127 deaths of 1966.

Douglas D. Thiem, 27, of Hartland, a widely-known Milwaukee businessman and a one-time sports car race driver, died Friday night after his sports car swerved off a Waukesha County road and overturned. Thiem, the executive vice president of Thiem Products Co., died at an Oconomowoc hospital about an hour and a half after the accident.

Brian D. Lenzen, 18, Menomonee Falls, was killed Friday in a three-car collision in that city. His death occurred prior to the start of the weekend counting period, which began at 6 p.m.

Franklin Kuhn, 35, Portage, died Friday in a Madison hospital of injuries suffered Dec. 15 when his car overturned in a ditch beside Highway 33 east of Portage.

Clintonville Farm Fire Causes No Damage

CLINTONVILLE—The volunteer rural fire department was called about 6 p.m. Thursday to extinguish a chimney fire at the Carl Ebert farm on County Trunk C, west of here. There was no damage.

Members of the Future Homemakers of America at Chilton High School took great pains in preparations for the annual dress-up tea and alumni get-together at the school Friday. Milk Price Hike Suit Dismissed by Court

Appeals Court Rules 24 Cent Adjuster Reduction Legal

FOND DU LAC (AP) — The U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals has affirmed a lower court decision dismissing a suit designed to increase the price of milk paid to some 9,000 dairy farmers in the Milwaukee milk shed.

The suit was instituted by Pure Milk Products Cooperative of Fond du Lac and Donald Uelmen of Eden, a PMC vice president, against Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman. It requested the federal court to hold illegal a 24-cent per hundredweight supply-demand adjuster reduction in Class 1 fluid milk prices under Milwaukee's federal milk marketing order.

U. S. District Judge John W. Reynolds last May dismissed the suit. He held that PMC and Uelmen did not have the standing to start such an action. He also found that Secretary Freeman acted in accordance with the order in imposing the supply-demand adjuster.

PMC Attorney George M. St. Peter said today the Appeals Court, in a 2-1 decision, agreed with Judge Reynolds' finding.

Dissenting Judge Roger Kiley wrote "in my opinion the district court judgment is wrong. I think the secretary abused his discretion and exceeded his authority. I would reverse and remand with directions to order the secretary to conduct a hearing."

PMS had argued that the secretary was making the deductions of 24 cents arbitrarily and without a hearing.

St. Peter said he could not comment on a possible appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court.

Construction Started On Badger Northland Industrial Warehouse

Ground was broken this week for a marketing-mixing warehouse at Badger Northland's Plant 1 in Kaukauna.

Roger Rohlf, vice president of marketing, said the 70 foot by 210 foot steel structure will be used to house a balanced inventory of equipment for shipping. It will be completed March 31.

The 14,700 square foot building will cost about $60,000 and be built by Nimmer Builders, Kaukauna, Rohlf said. Inland Steel will supply the steel.

He said that the addition is the result of about a $2.25 million increase in sales volume this year over 1966 but added the firm has no plans for hiring more employes.

The property for the structure was recently acquired from the City of Kaukauna.

Charles Olson May be New Port Manager

Hiring of Charles Olson, operator of Appleton Beechcraft Sales, as the part-time Outagamie County Airport manager at a salary of $5,500 a year has been recommended by the county board's airport committee.

The recommendation will be submitted to the executive committee next week.

Olson was selected over present airport manager Max Sagunsky and Harold Grandy, 3427 W. Spencer St., a retired Federal Aviation Agency official.

The salary proposal submitted by Olson was lowest of the three. Sagunsky had requested $5,700, the same as he is now getting as manager, and Grandy had requested $6,000.

Committee vote on recommending Olson was 3-0 with Kostka, Little Chute, abstaining. Kostka had opposed the original committee action in October of terminating Sagunsky's contract as manager.

Must Face New Trials

High Court Overrules Release of Juveniles

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

MADISON — The State Supreme Court Friday overruled two Brown County Circuit Court judges and ordered that juveniles sentenced to the Green Bay Reformatory without legal counsel be returned to their sentencing courts for new trials.

The juveniles should not be granted outright releases from state institutions, the high court unanimously held, overturning decisions of Brown County Circuit Judges Raymond Rahr and Donald Gleason.

The judges last summer had held that the outright releases were required under the U.S. Supreme Court's Gault Decision of last spring.

In September, the state court issued a temporary writ of prohibition blocking the outright releases and said the juveniles could still be released from the state institutions if they were returned for new trials to the courts which sentenced them.

Today the State Supreme Court made the writ permanent.

The decision affects juveniles admitted to the State Department of Health and Social Services for confinement in legal actions in which they were not represented by counsel.

The judges had been represented in the state's appeal to the State Supreme Court by Green Bay attorney Meyer Cohen. The Attorney General's Office brought the action, representing the department and the state.

35 Released

About 35 juveniles had been granted outright releases from state institutions under local court interpretations of the Gault Decision before the temporary writ was issued.

State officials have estimated that up to 1,000 youths could be affected by today's decision, many of them currently held in the Green Bay reformatory.

With a Hearty, Second-Hand 'Ho-Ho-Ho'

It All Happened to Man Named Holly

WAUPACA — A casual comment backfired on Tom Holly, 518 S. Main St. and resulted in a collection of unlikely and extremely humorous Christmas presents.

Holly, president of the 10 O'Clock Coffee Club, casually commented at a meeting that, since he was president, it would be nice for members to give him a few presents for Christmas.

After Friday, he probably wished he hadn't made the request — although the mannering which the gifts were given and received was all in fun.

Prez 'All Shook' Up

Long Overdue Book

"While you're at it — my birthday is in October," the increasingly brave Holly interjected.

"To Mary's gray - haired father" produced a false beard — gray of course. Another card carried the verse "Thought I would send you something from my wine cellar" inside was half a cork.

"I can't do anything more than thank you," Holly said.

Judge Cane To Run for Re-Election

Served Since 1962 On Third Circuit in Calumet, Winnebago

OSHKOSH — Circuit Court Judge Arnold J. Cane, Menasha, announced Friday that he will seek re-election in April to the Third Judicial Circuit in Winnebago and Calumet counties.

Judge Cane was appointed to the six year term in 1962 and had served previously as criminal court and juvenile court judge.

A graduate of Marquette University, Judge Cane has also served as Justice of the Peace from 1941-1949, a member of the Menasha Board of Education from 1950-1954 and as a member of the Wisconsin Legislature from 1951-1960.

In 1960, the governor appointed him to fill the office of municipal judge and juvenile court judge for Winnebago County.

He was elected to Branch 2, which handled all criminal court and juvenile court work, in 1961.

3 Brillion Students AFS Candidates

BRILLION — The Americans Abroad committee of the American Field Service (AFS) Chapter submitted names of three local high school juniors as candidates to spend three months next summer in a foreign country.

They were Sandy Reese, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Reese; Ruth Prahl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Prahl, and Tom Garrow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Garrow. The students were chosen after applications were screened by the high school guidance department, school officials, teachers and the Americans Abroad committee headed by Edward Barth.

This is Brillion's first attempt to send a student to a foreign country under the program. This community is host to its third AFS student this year. She is Ann Norris, an Australian who lives with the Earl Behnke family.

Clintonville Postmaster Says Mail Rush Over

CLINTONVILLE — The big rush is over at the post office, Postmaster Albert Fillnow said Friday.

He reported postal employes experienced a gradual upsweep in the amount of Christmas mail, but at no time during the entire season was there a backlog.

The department was able to get all dispatches out regularly and handle all deliveries, Fillnow said.

Home Decorations

Winners Announced In Clintonville Contest

CLINTONVILLE — Winners in the annual Christmas lighting contest, sponsored by city utilities, were announced after judging Wednesday night. Prizes totaled $100 in the two categories — the most effective use of lighting, and the most effective use of original properties.

Awards for the most effective use of lighting went to James Huffman, Riverside Drive, first, $20; Harold Bruemmer, 31 S Park St., second, $15; Kenneth Luebke, Pine Street, third, $10; and Earl Moldenhauer, 37 Hughes St., fourth, $5.

Second Category

Receiving honorable mention in this category were Lloyd Eggleston, 161 Harriet St.; Charles Burg, 37 Roberts St.; Anthony Henn, 105 Brix St., Dr. Charles Laux, 19th Street; and Carl Hensel, 161 N Main St.

In the second category of most effective use of original properties, prizes went to Donald Pringnitz, 100 Brix St., first, $20; LeRoy Faehling, 42 S. Park St., second, $15; Ruben Nelson, 55, Lincoln Ave., third, $10; and Mrs. Clifford Ratoth, 65 Brent St., fourth, $5.

Honorable mention went to Louis Kort, 19 W. Second St.; Robert Hanson, 20th Street; Bernard Hogan, 212 Modoc St.; and Earl Smith, 84 Dodge St.

Judges were Donald Doney, Mrs. James Devine and Roger Metzger.

Woman Reports Theft From Car

Carol Marek, Sherwood, reported to the Outagamie County Sheriff's Department Thursday night that Christmas gifts and packages valued at about $50 and several articles of clothing were taken from her car.

She said the car was parked behind the Left Guard Charcoal House on W. College Ave., where she is employed. There reportedly was no sign of forced entry, although she said she had locked the vehicle.

Warrant Issued For Suspect in Store Burglary

Cincinnati Man Sought for Break-in At Jewelry Firm

A criminal complaint and a warrant were issued this morning for a man suspected in a noon-time burglary at the Martin J. Hupka Jewelry Store in downtown Appleton last Sunday.

The warrant, charging Harold B. Lutchins, 34, of Cincinnati, Ohio, was immediately sent to authorities in that city. Extradition proceedings are expected to follow.

Dist. Atty Nick F. Schaefer issued the criminal complaint and Judge Gustave J. Keller the warrant, following a 15-minute hearing this morning in County Court Branch 2.

Conducted Investigation

Det. Merlyn Brux of the Appleton Police Department, who conducted a major portion of the burglary investigation, testified that Lutchins was arrested for speeding near Green Bay last Saturday night.

Brux stated that the car Lutchins was driving, and the description of the Cincinnati man fit the description of one man and the car that a Combined Locks man saw leave the scene about noon. The witness furnished police a description of the maroon 1965 or 1966 auto, the Ohio license number, and a description of two suspects. The information was given police within minutes after the burglary.

FBI Advises

Hupka told The Post-Crescent this morning that although an inventory of watches taken has been completed, he was advised by the Federal Bureau of Investigation to not reveal the figure.

However, the loss reportedly was about $5,000. It was learned Loss figures would have to have been based on the jeweler's cost of the watches. The number of watches taken was not learned, although earlier estimates were somewhere between 100 and 200.

The watches stolen in the daring, daytime burglary reportedly were of good quality. A large quantity of less expensive watches were left behind, as was other jewelry in the store at 336 W. College Ave.

$5,000 Awards Nominations For Public Service Are Open

Nominations for the two $5,000 Lane Bryant annual awards — one to a group and one to an individual — for distinguished volunteer service are now open.

Any American citizen anywhere, involved in unpaid volunteer work benefitting the home, community or nation, is eligible for nomination.

Forms for the award as well as further information, are available at Newman's Store in Appleton.

In honor of the 20th anniversary of the awards program, the prize this year was raised from $1,000 to $5,000.

We have found that our winners have almost without exception, put the money into volunteer work, so we wanted to contribute more to this valuable work," said Raphael Malsin, president of Lane Bryant, Inc.

Judges for this year's program include William F. Buckley Jr., editor of National Review, Robert F. Goheen, president of Princeton University, and Daniel K. Inouye, U.S. senator from Hawaii.

Award winners have been people who have worked with various projects to help in such areas as poor housing, rising welfare costs and inadequacies, urban complexities, mental and physical health deficiencies, human rights and racial injustices and other community problems.

Members of the LMR Homemaker Club, Mrs. Donald Deusterbeck and Mrs. Oscar Long, examine gifts the club will distribute to residents of the Manawa Convalescent Home. The gifts were collected at the group's recent Christmas party at Cedar Springs Resort near Manawa. (Schultz Photo)

A Great Community Victory

Residents of Appleton and Neenah-Menasha should feel a real sense of community pride this Christmas season for the successful efforts they put forth to exceed the campaign goals of the first Appleton United Givers drive and that of the Neenah-Menasha Community Chest.

In Appleton's case it is one of the few occasions in the last decade or so that the campaign has been successful and it demonstrates that the concept of the United Way of community giving is accepted and supported by the people of Appleton. The fact that seven new agencies have been added to the United Community Services structure in the last two years, and that this year their total UCS allocations will be met, opens further horizons in the community for improving the services the Red Feather agencies render and for including other qualified agencies under its umbrella.

In Neenah-Menasha's case this year's success follows several years of failure, also a most satisfying achievement for that community.

These results are only possible through a well-organized and highly motivated campaign team whose solicitations serve to broaden the base of giving within the community.

As with any such endeavor, however, success can sometimes be a temporary thing. and neither organization can afford to rest on its laurels now until campaign time rolls around again next year.

In Appleton's case the victory this year should make it possible to explore extension of the united appeal to all of Outagamie County, since practically all of the Red Feather agencies serve the entire county. And in the case of both Appleton and Neenah-Menasha it should now be feasible to continue the dialogue begun last year to ascertain if a joint and coordinated campaign effort could reach more of the people who work in one community and live in the other.

Soviets Back Monarchy in Spain

The Communist's rigid opposition to such things as kings and princes is well known. But last week an official newspaper of the Soviet Union, Izvestia, came out for the restoration of the monarchy in, of all places, Spain.

The Soviet Union backed the defeated republicans in the bloody Spanish Civil War which ended in complete triumph for General Francisco Franco. In 1947, however, Spain was proclaimed a legal monarchy only Franco was to retain the firm hand of control. Twenty years later, one of the claimants to the throne, Prince Juan Carlos, is nearing his 30th birthday and the eligible age for becoming the ruling monarch. Izvestia not only came out for the institution of the monarchy as an "acceptable alternative" to Franco's rule but backed Prince Juan Carlos as well instead of his exiled father, Don Juan de Bourbon y Battenberg.

It isn't that Russia is heading back to Tsarist rule itself. The dispute in Spain at present is primarily between the royalists and regentists and whether Franco will be replaced by a king or a regent. The latter undoubtedly would be more in position to continue a form of Franco's regime than would a king who might have something of a following of his own. The Russian backing is presumed to come because of Soviet opinion that under a king there might be more opportunity for development of the illegal but alive Communist party in Spain. And the Izvestia support probably means that Spanish Communists, reportedly quite active in university, labor and intellectual circles, would back the monarchy as well rather than a regent. This is important because in the past Spanish liberals have tried to support the Carlists who have claimed rights to the throne since they were virtually driven out of influence in the 19th Century. Carlists in Spain are estimated at about 100,000 and they oppose both Franco and Don Carlos. But if the assistance of Spanish Communists is withheld, their power may dwindle.

In a way it may be too bad that the ideological barriers are dissolving as far as so many policies of the Soviet Union and its Eastern European satellites are concerned. But the pressure of people for better lives should mean that the jockeyings for positions are for influence rather than naked power. Certainly the Soviet backing of the Spanish monarchy is an interesting move.

Good Citizen Award

If ever anyone deserved a "good citizen" award it is the Combined Locks man who furnished police with a description of the men and the car connected with the downtown Appleton jewelry store burglary Sunday. Had it not been for his alertness and keen sense of responsibility, police would have virtually nothing to go on in solving the daring burglary which netted a sizeable loot.

The citizen noted the suspicious activity of the two men, who are prime suspects, and lingered in the area long enough to obtain information that proved vital to the investigation. He then drove directly to the police station and reported his finding. At a time when public apathy seems at a peak and police support at low ebb, the deed performed by the Combined Locks man stands out as glaring proof that there are responsible people who "still care."

It is unfortunate that some members of the news media, including a Milwaukee newspaper and some area radio stations, saw the need to print or air the name of the eye-witness to the burglary. The use of the name accomplished nothing and, in fact, could conceivably have exposed him or his family to danger or reprisal. The airing or printing of his name could jeopardize the police case should the burglars be apprehended. Undoubtedly, police will depend on the Combined Locks man as a prime witness, and to that end, he — and the police — deserve, and should expect to receive, any safeguards that can be afforded by a responsible press.

We would hope that the bitter taste this citizen reportedly has after learning of his notoriety will disappear rapidly. We would hope that should he ever have the opportunity to repeat his good deed, he would not hesitate, even for a second. And we hope more citizens will emulate his deed.

Looking Backward

Merry Christmas From Crescent

100 YEARS AGO
Quoted from the Appleton Crescent for Dec. 21, 1867.

Our Christmas greetings to the 5,000 (persons) who dwell in Appleton and the 18,000 who make their homes in Outagamie County, and to the many thousands in other towns and counties in the fertile valleys of the Fox and the Wolf and their tributaries, are just as heart-felt as they were to the scattered few who lit their Christmas fires in the wilderness around us 15 years ago.

Many are gone we merrily greeted then, others have taken their places, and town and country has prospered beyond the expectation of the most sanguine. And the future is bright with promise to Appleton, Outagamie County, and to this whole region of country.

Reader! Do your whole duty in life, and as the holiday time comes round with each circling year, the consciousness of duty well discharged will add a zest to festal time undimmed by a single regret.

"Merry Christmas!"

25 YEARS AGO
Saturday, Dec. 19, 1942.

A pageant, "The Nativity," was to be presented at the Christmas Eve candlelight service held each year at Memorial Presbyterian Church, Appleton. Soloists for the pageant were Miss Muriel Engelland and Mrs. Lyard Towers. Accompanists were Mrs. Paul Truttschel at the organ and Miss Dorothy Evans at the piano.

Mrs. Louis S. Oyster was directing the pageantry and pantomime of the program staged against its musical background provided by the church's four choirs of adults, juniors, male and primary groups, soloists and accompanists.

Taking part in the pageant were Mary Ann Pollard in the role of Mary; Robert Thompson as Joseph; angels Elizabeth Appling, Peggy Ann Fisher, Jean Borshell; shepherds James Bertram, Fred Palmer and Kenneth Smith; the three kings Robert Favez, Richard Heller and Clayton Silliman; light bearers Jane Pulling, Shirley Sackerson, Jessica Schneider, Bonnie Storch, Betty Ann Gosha and Shirley Silliman.

10 YEARS AGO
Saturday, Dec. 21, 1957.

Members of the Twin City Co-Ed Club attended a holiday dance at the Whiting Boat House. Officers of the group, in charge of the party, were Marian Miller, president; Barbara Dietz, secretary, and Joe Snyders, treasurer.

A new version of the favorite "T'was the Night Before Christmas" was presented by members of Cub Scout Pack 3 of St. Thomas Episcopal Church, Menasha. Tom Reinke played the role of Santa Claus, Bob Banta portrayed a snow thrower, Peter Hanamann enacted the Moon, and Father and Mother were played by Robert Roessler and Allyn Mosher, respectively.

Representatives of several Calumet County clubs packed more than $300 worth of Christmas gifts for needy families. They were Arthur Berrens, American Legion; Pearl Sommerville, county supervising teacher; Mrs. Bert Ketter, Daughters of Isabella; Florence Woelfel, county welfare director; Ed Krans, American Legion; Calvin Schmahl, 40 et 8, and Mrs. Math Nilles, G.U.G. Germania.

Youths Do Good Job for Health Unit

Editor, Post-Crescent:

So often these days we read about the problems caused by teen-agers, but we find little attention given to the teen-agers who participate in various community projects.

During the recent visit of the State Board of Health Mobile Survey Unit, our nurses had the opportunity to work with groups of students from the Xavier Girls' Department, the Xavier Future Nurses Club and the Future Medics Clubs from Appleton High-East and High-West. These students registered persons using the facilities of the State Board of Health Mobile Service Unit. Several evenings and the days of teachers' convention and Thanksgiving vacation were devoted to this project. The students reported promptly and were courteous and helpful at all times.

We are grateful for their assistance in helping to carry out this worthwhile project.

Many More Pilgrims To Visit Bethlehem

BY ERIC GOTTGETREU
Associated Press Writer

BETHLEHEM, ISRAELI-HELD JORDAN (AP) — A new star will hang over Bethlehem this Christmas — the Star of David.

And like the glowing star which lingered over this sleepy town nearly 2,000 years ago, it is drawing pilgrims to the place where Christ was born.

The Israelis occupied Bethlehem in the June war and tore down all the obstacles which once tainted Christmas with hostility and suspicion for so many pilgrims from all over the world.

For 19 years those who crossed from Israel underwent close scrutiny from Jordanian border officials. Last year only 7,000 crossed. This Christmas, some 16,000 are expected to flock to the Biblical city for the famous midnight Mass Dec. 24.

In Jerusalem, where they once filed through the Mandelbaum Gate checkpost across the armistice line dividing the Holy City, they will now drive past.

SPECIAL ENTRY VISA

Christians crossing from Isreal had to have at least two documents — their passport and a special entry visa issued by the Israelis.

The Jordanians refused to allow anyone through if they had an Israeli-stamped passport, and as often as not demanded proof the pilgrim was not Jewish.

But even then the harried pilgrim's troubles were not over. Visitors who crossed from Israel were not allowed to return that way. So they had to get entry visas for Jordan too, so they could get home.

If they came to Bethlehem from Amman or other Arab cities, however, pilgrims could leave through Israel if they stayed in Jordan for at least 72 hours.

This year, all roads lead to Bethlehem. From Nazareth, below the hills of Galilee, the large Catholic Arab community can lop 50 miles of its pilgrimage route by going direct through the occupied West Bank.

Several hundred more Christian Arabs are expected to cross the Allenby Bridge beginning about Dec. 22 under a special Christmas program. Others will come south from Lebanon through the Rosh Hanikra border post.

Planeloads of Christians from all over the world will drive through the mountains to Jerusalem, where hotels in the Arab sector report solid bookings for the first time since the war.

LONG DETOUR AVOIDED

Another route also will be used for the first time in 19 years. The Roman Catholic patriarch, Msgr. Alberto Gori, will lead worshippers and Catholic diplomats on a shortened pilgrimage from the Church of the Holy Sepulchre in Old Jerusalem along the former armistice lines past Rachel's tomb here to the little Church of the Nativity.

Until this year they had to make a long detour to miss going too near the barbed wire and mines.

Because of the expected crush, the Israelis have banned all Jews and Moslems from the town during the "avoid overcrowding and possible incidents."

Lt. Col. Yermeyah u Eshed. the city's military governor, is supervising a program to ensure a "dignified and peaceful" Christmas.

The Israelis are going all out to make it one to remember. A special international switchboard will be set up so visitors can telephone greetings home. A closed television circuit is being installed in the tiny Catholic section of the Church of the Nativity so the overflow congregation can take part in the midnight Mass. The church only seats 70.

Television film of the service is being flown to Rome by special plane for relay around the world via the Early Bird communications satellite.

"It will be the most celbrated Christmas here for a long time," said Bethlehem Mayor Elias Bandek. "And, I hope, one of the most joyous."

Wisconsin Report

Bill to Reform Tax Assessment System Defeated by Town Lobby

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

MADISON — A favorite topic for editorial commentators for decades has been the proliferation of local governments in Wisconsin and the probability of more efficient and economical performance under a thorough going local government reorganization act. Wisconsin ranks high in the country in the number of its independent local units of government. In an era of urbanization the number of tiny and autonomous town governments is frequently pointed out as an example of archaic organization.

But there should be no illusions about the difficulties of the job of reform, after the Legislature's refusal to accept one of the most innocuous yet most defensible pieces of local government improvement legislation submitted to it in years.

As in so many other instances this year, the supposedly more conservative State Senate accepted the recommendation of the governor and the State Department of Revenue for an improvement of the local tax assessment machinery. But the measure was killed in the State Assembly.

TOWNS AGAINST PLAN

The town lobby didn't want it. Ergo, the assemblymen declined to endorse it. The town lobby misrepresented it. But the assemblymen didn't care. They chose not to offend the town chairmen in more than a thousand rural districts who feared the optional county assessment proposal as a violation of their privileges and an omen of their ultimate extinction.

Quite possibly these town leaders were able to bring off their revolt against an honest reform because the machinery of local tax administration is so often misunderstood.

The issue simply put is this: is there any assurance today that the property tax, which remains the most important foundation of local government in the state, is accurately and therefore equitably assessed?

When hundreds of assessors are chosen without special qualifications or training, paid a paltry salary, and perform their chores on a part-time basis, there must be some doubt in the mind of the man or woman who pays the increasingly high levies upon a home, farm, factory, or whatever.

CAN TEST ASSESSMENTS

The problem is not only one of equality among neighbors. That can be fairly soon tested, by any interested person, by an examination of the local assessment rolls.

But the question of assessed values is only a part of the story. The state government is responsible for establishing what are called "equalized values," or "true values." This is used for the levying of the state property tax, the distribution of the increasing county tax levy, the distribution of state aids and shared taxes which are increasingly vital in local affairs and the distribution of the school taxes in many districts. For the first time also this year it is used for the distribution of the new and substantial vocational school tax in an equitable manner. Such true values cannot be determined with any confidence unless the state has a regular and accurate flow of market transactions.

Such accuracy is not now assured, in spite of the mandate to the state tax officials to use such material. It is also difficult to believe that the typical part-time assessor in a rural district is qualified to establish fair assessed values on a motel, or a resort, a factory, a shopping center or any of the other complex developments increasingly moving beyond city boundaries, whatever he may know about the market value of cows, or silos, dairy barns, or cropland.

TAXPAYERS REFUSED SUPPORT

The surprise in the failure of the reform effort is not in the jealous resentment of local officials about a degeneration of their powers and privileges, but in the absence of support from observant taxpayers who are worried about rising local government cost burdens. The original administration proposal was for a trained county assessor service that would cover all properties except those in cities of 10,000 and over. When that ran into bitter opposition, an optional plan was devised. It went down the drain also, in what may be one of the worst of the mulish decisions of the Assembly this year.

Napalm No Worse Than Other Weapons

Editor, Post-Crescent:

This letter is in reply to the anti-napalm letter in the December 13 People's Forum.

Before indiscriminantly calling others "uninformed," it might be a good idea for the author of that letter to get her own facts straight.

"We are the only country using it (napalm)." The latest Arab-Israeli War, and the present Yemeni "Civil War" are only two examples of napalm used by other countries during the last few months alone.

A napalm bomb is made up of a canister filled with gasoline which has been mixed with substances that help it stick to what it touches, and to burn longer. (An effective sort of napalm can be made by using ordinary powdered soap and gasoline.) Flamethrowers use the same type of substance, and almost every army in the world is equipped with flamethrowers. (Just a week or so ago over two hundred civilians were killed by Viet Cong in one village alone, and the Viet Cong were wielding flamethrowers.) Why is the use of these not also considered immoral?

"The most valuable of a nation's possessions is its people. Then . . . why destroy them?" Since when is the accidental, even though tragic, burning and killing of a small number of civilians the destruction of a people? If you think more than a small number of civilians have been accidentally hit by napalm, then read the documented, if undramatic, reports of Doctor Howard Rusk, in the March 24, 1967 issue of Time.

"Man's supreme goal is the moral improvement of the individual, the attainment of human dignity." Who could disagree with these ideals? But what action is to be taken when men are offered the choice between peace with depredation and slavery, or war with a chance of having freedom and decency when it's all over?

The choice has already been made in Vietnam, to fight for what we consider right and decent. Mrs. Lipske, do you except our young men to fight for this with less than the best weapons we can give them?

The use of napalm was compared to the "moral catechism . . . of the Communists," but it is neither the moral catechism of the communists nor that of the capitalists. It is the moral catechism of war.

"We will nver win the respect or love of these people by using as horrid a weapon as napalm." However, napalm is not being used to win us love and respect, but to destory Viet Cong and North Vietnamese war supplies, and to kill Viet Cong and North Vietnamese soldiers. And it does this very well.

Mrs. Lipske, you call for men capable of looking beyond their existence, anxious to shape the future for coming generations, respecting the dignity of man, and bringing out the best that is within mankind. Well, what you fail to realize is that we already have them, fighting and dying for freedom in Vietnam. And we can show our appreciation of them by providing them with the best weapons we have, so they can get the killing over with and return home to build the world you dream of.

Napalm Being Used by Protesters as a Front

Editor, Post-Crescent:

The letter by Mrs. Martines in the Dec. 17 People's Forum illustrated, much better than I myself might have done, the point I was trying to make in my earlier letter.

The point was this: That protesting napalm is being used as a front, as a cover for the real intentions of many of those doing the protesting.

And this point was well brought out in a revealing paragraph of Mrs. Martines' letter:

"Do the people who protest against Dow really believe that the use of napalm is the factor that makes this war detestable? Let me assure you that if the U.S. government were to announce that, starting tomorrow, no more napalm would be dropped, the opposition to the war would not diminish. The napalm issue is a way to get the attention of Americans in the hope that a bit of emotional and moral outrage will shake them into investigating the history of our presence in Vietnam."

Why is it that so many of the opponents of the United States policy in Vietnam think so little of the validity of their reasoning that the only way they try to get it across to the American public is with an emotional shock campaign totally unrelated to the facts as such?

Appleton Most Beautiful City Visitors Have Seen

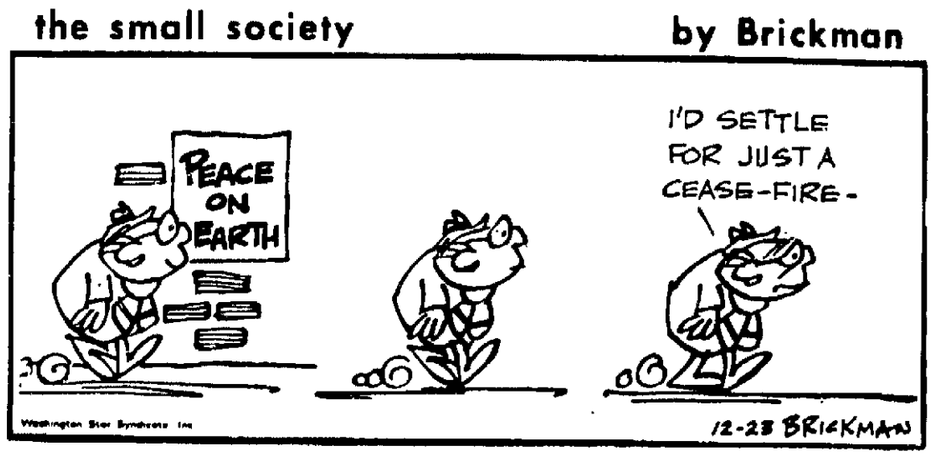

Editor, Post-Crescent:

We were visiting relatives in Kimberly and we drove down the avenue in Appleton. We were greatly impressed with the Christmas decorations that adorn the street. The Chamber of Commerce, the people of Appleton, and the city should be commended on such beautiful decorations. In all the cities that we have traveled to throughout the country, none can compare with your decorations. They are outstanding.

Another thing that impressed us was the directories and benches with umbrellas on your main avenue. They are very unique. It appears that your residents are very much interested in keeping Appleton a beautiful city. We enjoyed it very much. Other cities should look at Appleton to see how clean and pretty the downtown section is.

Thank you. Keep up the good work in your city.

Your Problems

After-Effects of His LSD 'Trip' Still Plague College Student

BY ANN LANDERS

DEAR ANN LANDERS: The letter from the LSD user caused a lot of talk on our campus. I heard some kids say, "That settles it for me." Can you use one more letter that might "settle it" for some others?

I'm a 20-year-old college student (male) who thought it might be a groovy experience to "expand my mind." I smoked a couple of joints (marijuana) and felt pretty good after the pot excursions. The next step for me was LSD. I figured if pot made me high, LSD would really zoom me out of this world. You wouldn't believe how easy it is to get LSD around here.

My first trip was fair but my second trip was bad — very bad. My third trip was agony. It took me three days to figure out who I was and where I was. That was two months ago and I'm far from normal as I write this letter.

In a crowd (study halls are crowded) I still get that up-tight feeling. Don't ask me what I'm afraid of. I don't know. A casual conversation usually turns into a heated argument. When anyone disagrees with me I become furious. Later I am filled with remorse and I get awfully depressed.

During these depressions all my character defects loom up in exaggerated form to plague me. I feel like the biggest liar, the laziest, most useless, rottenest person on earth. I get to thinking maybe I don't deserve to live and suicide seems like the sure way to take me out of my misery. Then a voice that sounds like God keeps saying, "You'll come out of this. Fight back." So I keep fighting.

I am luckier than most kids. My parents are great and they have been very understanding. I am under psychiatric care and I know now that one day I'll make it back.

I hope you will print my letter, Ann, and give me the opportunity to help some other stupid kid to learn for nothing what nearly cost me my life. — Ex-Hippy

Dear Ex-Hippy: Here's your letter and my thanks for writing it. Now, may I add a word?

Landers

There are no shortcuts to peace of mind and inner security. Contentment cannot be found in a bottle, a pill, a needle or on a sugar cube. The person who wants to get away from himself is the very one who can least afford to try it. He is the cop-out, the unstable, maladjusted personality who will crack when the going gets rough. He is the very one who should grab hold of something solid and hang in there for all he's worth.

No one ever solved a problem or dealt successfully with a crisis by running away from it. Drugs and alcohol are methods of escape. All they do is further befuddle and finally depress an already confused and unhappy person.

Physicians all over the country have reported an increasing number of psychotic teenagers who have flipped out after experimenting with drugs. Some of these kids will never be rational human beings again as long as they live. What a terrible price to pay for a "groovy experience."

How far should a teen-age couple go? Can necking be safe? When does it become too hot to handle? Send for Ann Landers booklet, "Necking And Petting — What Are The Limits?" Mail your request to Ann Landers in care of your newspaper enclosing 50 cents in coin and a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

HINTS FROM Heloise

Dear Heloise:

I got tired of dusting the shoes on the floor of my closet, so I finally got smart.

I put each pair of shoes in a plastic bread bag and secured the tops with wire "twistems," attaching them at the same time to a hanger. Then I just hung them up on the rod in the closet.

Now there's no need to dust shoes at all and I can easily see which pair I want to wear.

Phyllis Miller

That's real tricky.

Heloise

Dear Heloise:

My bathroom vanity counter makes a great changing table for our baby. I made a pad from a plastic, zippered, pillowslip cover with old, folded towels inside.

It certainly is a handy height for me.

Dear Heloise:

If you've ever punctured yourself with a knife when trying to stab potatoes before baking, try this:

Use a two-pronged holder for cardboard, doesn't show at all, control of the pointed instrument and it takes half the time.

A Faithful Reader

Dear Heloise:

Whenever I try a recipe that is printed in a magazine or on the back of a box or package and find it excellent, I cut out every duplicate of the recipe that I come across.

Then if a friend samples my bread, cookies or whatever, and asks for the recipe, I give her one of the extra ones I have clipped.

A Reader

Dear Heloise:

My sister and I received a very nice wall lamp for our room. It had a sharp metal base, so we put a cardboard circle behind it to prevent it from scraping the paint on the wall.

When our room was repainted recently, my mother suggested we replace the cardboard with a plastic cover from a coffee can.

LETTER OF THOUGHT 2

Dear Heloise:

A holiday thought . . .

Marie

Dear Heloise:

We have three young children and with friends always dropping by on Christmas Day, I found myself spending most of my time gathering up gift wrappings all day trying to keep the house as tidy as possible.

So last year I got a large box from the grocery, covered the outside in chimney paper and placed it right in the living room.

It was attractive, decorative and a catch-all for the trash. That evening the whole box went out for the trashman.

I was so delighted with this that I already have my box made for this year.

Let's EXPLORE YOUR MIND

By Sylvanus M. Duvall, Ph.D. and Evelyn M. Duvall, Ph.D.

Not necessarily right. A rising young executive who is "going places" may seem to be a good catch. Yet if he really gets places, he must work long hours. His major interest must be his work, not his family. He may be able to give you more income and a higher social position, but only if he gives you little of himself. Before you marry you should know both what you're getting into and whether or not you want it.

Some people are always able to do what they want!

True—— False——

False, not even in your leisure time are your completely free to do what you want to do. The members of your family persuade you to go along with some family activity when you'd rather do something else. The neighbors influence how you spend your off-work time and with whom, and at what kinds of recreation. The profession or occupational group you belong to has an effect on where you play and at what, and even what you have for refreshments. Studies show that few modern men and women do what they personally want to do all the time.

Would jobs for all prevent riots?

Yes—— No——

No, says journalist David Garino, who investigated the riots in Waterloo, Iowa. Schools were not segregated, there was little unemployment, and Negro income was relatively high. Housing was, on the whole, good. What was lacking was a sense of community and responsibility for it. Serious also was "a frighteningly low aspiration level and negative self images among Negro youths." The basic problem there, as in most instances, is attitudes.

Use Art Paper to Make a Petal Border on a Mirror

BY CAPPY DICK

An old hand mirror (Figure 1) that Mother will permit you to use can be turned into a glamorized looking glass by equipping it with a border of paper flower petals (Figure 2).

Cut the petals from colored construction paper, making each one about as long as the handle of the mirror. They may be all of one color, or a variety of colors may be used.

Place a spot of glue on each petal and stick it to the edge of the glass. When all are in place, apply a band of colored mending tape around the glass to cover the ends of the petals and to help hold them in place.

This completes the project. Place the mirror on your dresser where it will be handy and where it will add a touch of bright color to your room.

Don't Ruff Side Suit to Keep Trump

BY ALFRED SHEINWOLD

One way to protect yourself against a bad trump break is to avoid ruffing the side suits. This lets you preserve your trump length. Another way is to ruff as often as possible.

Opening lead — ♠ 4

Declarer won the top spades, took the ace of hearts and ruffed a heart. He ruffed a spade with dummy's ten of clubs and returned another low heart from dummy.

East could afford to discard a diamond, and South ruffed for the second time. South led a trump to dummy's king and led still another low heart from dummy.

At this stage South still had A-Q-7 of trumps. If he ruffed with the seven he could cash the top trumps and his ace of diamonds to take the first 11 tricks.

Ruffs High

East's only chance was to step in with a high trump. East put in the nine of trumps to shut out South's seven.

South could have lost his contract by overruffing, but he was above this kind of foolishness. He had already discarded one diamond on the ace of hearts but still had two worthless low diamonds in his hand. When East ruffed with the nine of clubs, South threw a losing diamond, giving East his trump trick and a diamond trick at the same time.

East returned a diamond to the ace, and South cleared trumps with the ace and queen. The opponents got one diamond at the end, but the contract was safe. South had assured his contract by discarding a loser instead of overruffing.

Daily Question

Partner opens with one heart, and the next player passes. You hold: S-Q 10 6 4 2 H-Q 9 5 4 2; D-K 7; C-5. What do you say?

ANSWER: Bid four hearts, showing strong trump support, not more than 9 points in high cards, and a singleton or void in a side suit. It is more informative to describe the hand in this way than to show the spades.

Girl Scouts Adopt Widow

GREELEY, Colo. (AP) — At 90 years and two months, Mrs. Lula Cremer, a widow, is a Girl Scout.

Because of arthritis, she had a little difficulty in straightening the first three fingers of her right hand in the traditional salute, but she made it.

As girls of Troop 39 surrounded Mrs. Cremer in her home Mrs. Jean Reed pinned a Girl Scout insignia to her dress.

Equal Time Demanded by McCarthy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rebuffed by the major networks, Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy is asking the government to insure he gets radio and television time to answer statements by President Johnson.

The Minnesota Democrat, who says he'll challenge Johnson in several Democratic presidential primaries next year, asked Friday that the Federal Communications Commission order NBC, CBS and ABC to provide him air time.

His FCC appeal came shortly after ABC and NBC, following an earlier stand by CBS, rejected McCarthy's request for equal time to answer President Johnson's televised assertion Tuesday that the Minneotan was working with Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., in a quest for the nomination.

Repeated Denials

The networks said McCarthy isn't entitled to equal time under laws governing broadcasting because Johnson is not a declared candidate for re-election.

Saying Johnson won't run next year denies "a fact which every American child knows," said Blair Clark, McCarthy's campaign manager, in the appeal to the FCC.

"The people of the country have the right to know," Clark continued, "whether the FCC is going to permit a President who is obviously a candidate for reelection to use the powerful network TV and radio facilities without a right of response by other announced candidates."

Clark said the FCC should either order the networks to give McCarthy equal time or hold a hearing on the issue.

Prime Time

Johnson was interviewed by correspondents from all three networks, and all three carried the pre-taped, hour-long show in prime night time.

In other political developments Tuesday:

—Gov. Lester Maddox of Georgia told newsmen he doesn't plan to bolt the Democratic party next year but may support the views of former Alabama Gov. George Wallace in the presidential campaign. Maddox said it "would take a miracle" for him to actively back the national Democratic ticket.

—Wallace, seeking to mount a third-party campaign, said in Pomona, Calif., that he had more than the 66,059 registrations needed to qualify his American Independent Party on the 1968 presidential ballot in the nation's largest state.

H. P. Sullivan, assistant secretary of state, said later 41,878 Californians have officially registered under the American Independent party banner. But Sullivan said these registration figures came only from major counties and conceded Wallace's totals could be correct.

At Cam Ranh Bay—site of a bustling new harbor on the South China Sea and one of the most secure U.S. bases in South Vietnam—the President told 2,500 fighting men they are discharging U.S. responsibilities in Asia "with blood and sweat and bravery."

"It's not the shortest route back to the White House," he told them, "but because it is almost Christmas and because my spirit would be here with you anyway, I had to come.

"I wish I could have brought you something more than just the old man himself . . . some tangible symbol of the pride people feel in you back home."

The President added that he brought "the assurance of what you have fought to achieve: The enemy cannot win now in Vietnam. He can harass, he can terrorize, he can inflict casualties, while taking far greater losses himself. But he cannot win. You have seen to that."

This Christmas, he said, "comes a time for testing for our country This time it is a test of will: Whether we have the vision and the steady hand to see us through a grave challenge to freedom."

"I can bring you something more," he added, "news of a victory that is being won not on a battlefield but in cities and villages all over Asia. It is a victory of confidence. Because of what you and our allies are doing here, men throughout Asia are beginning to feel confident that the future belongs to them—to those who love peace."

Air Force One

The weather at Cam Ranh was crisp and bright with a thin haze softening the dull brown surrounding mountains as the blue and white Air Force One touched down and taxied up to where all the top U.S. and South Vietnamese military officials waited.

The President stepped off the plane wearing brown slacks, a khaki shirt and khaki windbreaker. He shed the jacket as the morning grew warmer.

Troops were drawn up in parade formation at the airstrip but before Johnson began to speak, Gen. William C. Westmoreland, U.S. commander in Vietnam, shouted for them to break ranks and come in closer.

In his visit to the hospital—the same hospital he visited a year ago—the President was moved by the sight of wounded GIs. He pinned Purple Hearts on the pajamas of 20 wounded men. In one case, where a soldier was so badly burned he could hardly speak, Johnson pinned the medal on his pillow.

Legal Services Director Named

MADISON (AP) — Fond du Lac attorney John William Calhoun was named by Atty. Gen. Bronson C. La Follette Friday as Director of Legal Services for the State of Wisconsin.

Calhoun, 49, is the first person to hold the post, created by the 1956 legislature to administer a staff of more than 30 lawyers in the attorney general's office.

Calhoun, a Fond du Lac attorney since 1950, holds degrees from both Lawrence University and the University of Virginia in Charlottesville, Va

He has served on numerous state and local civic affairs groups.

32 Iranians Killed In Crash of Truck

TEHRAN, Iran (AP) — Thirty-two Iranians were reported killed recently when a truck carrying them to Bandarabass, in south Iran, hit a tunnel 120 miles north of Bandarabass.

The newspaper Kayhan said the driver of the truck was the only survivor and was arrested.

Inmates Hide Guard, Flee Down Sheets

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Six inmates of Nashville Metro Jail stood around unobtrusively, with a bound guard hidden under a bunk, while Salvation Army workers handed out Christmas gifts.

Then the daring team completed their escape from a third-floor cell block with a rope made of bed sheets Friday night.

Three of them were captured a short time later.

Rookie guard Ralph Cruz, 34, in his second day on the job, said he and trusty Ellis Baucom were walking along a corridor in the cell block when a prisoner held up a note to be sent out.

"This fellow asked me to open the door and I did," Cruz said. "Then they jumped us. One of them grabbed Baucom and had a knife at his throat.

'Knife at Throat'

"The next thing I knew, one of them had a knife in my throat and another had a knife in my back They said, 'don't say anything or we'll kill you.' "

Cruz said the prisoners placed a gag over his mouth, tied him hand and foot and slid him under a bunk.

"They started to tie up Baucom, but some Salvation Army workers came through passing out Christmas gifs and they had to wait until they had passed through," Cruz said.

With the way once again clear, the prisoners forced Baucom to tell them which key unlocked the back door to the cell area, Cruz said. They used the big jail keys to pry open a window and let themselves down three floors by a rope made of about 50 bed sheets.

Exaggeration Cited in Hanoi Accounts of U. S. Air Losses

By GEORGE ESPER

SAIGON (AP) — When Hanoi broadcasts that it has shot down 3½ times as many planes as the United States admits losing, what is the answer?

"They started off exaggerating, and now they're stuck with it," says Brig. Gen Winant Sidle, chief of information for the U.S Command.

"We guarantee the figures we're giving out. Hanoi has been exaggerating tor two years. They can't very well go back. I don't have the slightest idea why they do it. It is so far removed from reality, it doesn't make any sense."

There is a possibility of duplication in Hanoi's reporting of U S. planes shot down, he added.

"For example," he said, "one gunner shoots at a plane from the east of Hanoi, another from the west and another from the north, and they all turn it in."

Studies have been made seeking the formula the North Vietnamese use.

"We tried taking the duplicating factor into consideration but that didn't work out," Sidle said. "We tried all kinds of complicated devices and none of them worked out."

Gen. Jammie M. Philpott, deputy chief of staff for intelligence for the U.S. 7th Air Force says: "They overclaim."

Radio Hanoi has claimed North Vietnamese gunners have shot down 2,607 American warplanes since the United States bombing campaign began in February, 1965. The U.S. Command's reports last week listed 767 American planes shot down.

"Four surface to air missiles may be shot at one plane and it is shot down, but they claim two or three," Philpott theorized. "The flow of information and the recording of information is fast. There is no time to analyze."

Philpott said the United States sometimes is trapped the same way. During raids on the Phuc Yen airfield in October, he recalled, first reports from pilots indicated that 17 MIG interceptors had been destroyed on the ground. This information was passed on to news media but analysis of reconnaissance photographs showed four MIGs were destroyed and eight damaged on the ground.

Time for Dark Horse In Annual Oscar Race

Movie Field Undistinguished, Worst Year So Far in Academy Award History

BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Nominations for this year's Academy Awards race are almost completed, and it shapes up as the most undistinguished contest within memory.

Local observers fail to recall a more lackluster field of candidates. Nowhere in sight are there films of the topmost calibre of a "Ben-Hur," "Tom Jones," "West Side Story" or "My Fair Lady."

Lacking are performances that have been universally acclaimed, such as Lee Marvin in "Cat Ballou" or Patricia Neal in "Hud."

Violence or Sex

The major contenders appear to be films heavily weighted with violence and sex, not the sort of thing academy voters are proud to endorse. Some big musicals are up for consideration, but many reviewers found them empty and artless.

It appears to be a good year for dark horses. Certainly it's not a good year for those poor souls forced by the exigencies of their profession to predict Oscar winners.

Crime films dominate the contest for best picture. "Bonnie and Clyde" may well be the favorite, judging from Eastern reviews hailing it as the greatest thing since "Birth of a Nation." It isn't that great, although it is an adventurous piece of film making. "In the Heat of the Night" has attracted much favor among academy voters, and "In Cold Blood" is having an impact. "Cool Hand Luke" and "Wait Until Dark" were also well received.

"The Graduate" appears to have the best chance among the noncrime films. "Dr. Dolittle," "Camelot," and possibly "Thoroughly Modern Millie" and the "The Happiest Millionaire" may get mentioned, but none was a total triumph. "Dr Dolittle" came the closest.

Other possibilities for best picture are "Guess Who's Coming to Dinner," "Taming of the Shrew," "To Sir with Love," "Two For the Road," "Far from the Madding Crowd," "The Dirty Dozen" and "The Family Way."

The males provide the strongest race among the 1967 performances. Rod Steiger was an early favorite because of "In the Heat of the Night." Sidney Poitier may well be a contender again for that film or "To Sir With Love."

Spencer Tracy seems likely to be awarded a posthumous nomination on the basis of "Guess Who's Coming to Dinner." Other probables are Paul Newman for "Cool Hand Luke" and Warren Beatty for "Bonnie and Clyde." Newcomber Dustin Hoffman has a good chance for "The Graduate."

Other possibles: Richard Burton, "Taming of the Shrew"; Bob Blake, "In Cold Blood."; Richard Harris, "Camelot"; Dirk Bogarde, "Our Mother's House"; Lee Marvin, "The Dirty Dozen"; Rex Harrison, "Dr. Dolittle"; George C Scott, "The Flim Flam Man."

The female star performances that seem to have the best chance are: Faye Dunaway, "Bonnie and Clyde"; Vanessa Redgrave, "Camelot"; Dame Edith Evans, "The Whisperers"; Audrey Hepburn, "Wait Until Dark"; Katharine Hepburn, "Guess Who's Coming to Dinner", Julie Andrews "Thoroughly Modern Millie"; Rosalind Russell, "Rosie"; Elizabeth Taylor, "Taming of The Shrew", Julie Christie, "Far From the Madding Crowd."

Mike Nichols is certain to be a directorial nominee for the second straight year because of "The Graduate"—his "Virginia Woolf" lost out to Fred Zinnemann's "A Man For All Seasons" last year. Arthur Penn will be a solid contender for "Bonnie and Clyde," as will Norman Jewison for "In the Heat of the Night" and Richard Brooks for "In Cold Blood."

Other possibles for direction. Stanley Kramer, "Guess Who's Coming to Dinner"; Stuart Rosenberg, "Cool Hand Luke"; Robert Aldrich, "The Dirty Dozen", Richard Fleischer, "Dr Dolitt[illegible]."

Emmett Kelly Jr., Second in a generation of clowns, goes through the procedure of make-up with the same face that made his father famous before him. Starting with an ordinary face, he adds a rubber nose, then paints on his lips, adds an old hat with long hair. The result is Emmett Kelly, one of the world's most famous clowns. (AP Wirephoto)

Gleason, Welk, Add Yule Spirit

BY TV SCOUT

6:30-7:30 Channels 2-7 — The beginning of the Christmas weekend finds two holiday offerings worthy of note, and on opposite ends of the TV spectrum. The first is The Jackie Gleason Show an annual outing that will delight tykes and please their elders. As the Poor Soul, Gleason is wafted by a Fairy Princess into the land of fairy tales where he meets people like Goldilocks and the Three Bears, Alice in Wonderland, Old King Cole and others of that pleasant ilk. Art Carney, Sheila MacRae and Jean Kean are present but not in their regular Honeymooners roles. Carney, as usual is outstanding, as a Shoemaker surrounded by Elves and King Cole. (C)

7:30-8:30 Channels 11-9 — A stage filled with happy and song-filled youngsters is the feature of The Lawrence Welk Show's annual Christmas festival with the maestro's grandchildren and the youngsters of his Music Makers totaling 40 in all. You don't have to be a Welk fan to enjoy this although those viewers will be especially entranced by Joe Feeney's seven-year-old son Chris singing "Christmas in Killarney" and accordionist Myron Floren's daughter, Heidi, playing "Do Re Mi" (C)

6:30-7:30 Channel 5 — The name of Maya's guest star is as unlikely as the plot of the episode. Salome Aaron is featured as a lovely orphaned Princess being held hostage by her guardian who wants his ward to marry his son. (C)

7:30-8 Channel 2 — The appearance of Jeremy Clyde of the Chad and Jeremy team is supposed to be something of a shocker on My Three Sons though you'll find it rather mild and unbelievable (C)

7:30-8 Channel 5 — It's do or die on Get Smart and the doing makes for a lot of good laughs. It seems Max gets slipped a small dose of poison, especially developed so that there is no antidote, except the one known only to the KAOS agent who conned him into taking the stuff. (C)

8-8:30 Channels 2-7 — Tonight's episode of Hogan's Heroes might be described as a "talk" show. After the initial conversations between Hogan and the heroes on how to infiltrate a new German chemical factory, the decision is that Carter should defect to the enemy. (C)

8-10 Channel 5 — If it is true that a fair supply of motion pictures are still available to television, then it is unforgivable to foist something like "Wild Seed" on the public. (C)

8:30-9:30 Channel 11 — Ben Calhoun faces both sides of the law in this quite typical tale on Iron Horse. (C)

9-10 Channels 2-7 — Mannix uses the episode which was its debut, back in September. Aside from the introductory passages, both vocal and violent, the premiere featured excellent photography and guest stars Lloyd Nolan as an ex-racketeer and Kim Hunter as his wife. (C)

King Solomon Solves Dispute

CHICAGO (AP) — A Circuit Court magistrate borrowed a cue from King Solomon Thursday and divided a motorcycle between two men, each claiming the bike as his.

Magistrate Vincent J Tondryk awarded the frame, transmission and wheels to Frank Affetto, 43, a policeman who said the motorcycle was stolen from him two years ago. Robert Wildey, 34, an electrician, got the engine and windshield, richly adorned with decals, and tassled saddlebag.

Gift of Long Underwear Fulfills Will Provision

ROSWELL N M. (AP) — Officials of the Masonic Temple in Roswell have distributed 30 pairs of long underwear at $10 each this year to fulfill a stipulation in the will of a former Roswell resident Gus Winter died nine years ago and left $105,000, part of it in trust with the stipulation that each Christmas some of the money be used to buy long underwear for cold and needy old men
